“Anchor To The Solid Rock”

There is a common need within all of us for someone, some thing upon which we can depend, a constancy that will always be there for us and will never let us down. This world doesn't supply that remedy, however. We're all too weak and undependable for that big of a task.

What a tragedy for us to put so much stock and trade in the behavior of someone else to the extent that it dashes us on the rocks when they break their word. I've known of some Christians who have abandoned their faith because some minister, elder, Bible teacher, or other church members let them down—didn't live up to the highest expectations. Their faith rested more on the individual than on the rock of our salvation.

In John 14:1-11 we have Jesus' promise of his dependability. He's calling on each one of us to trust His promises and lean on His everlasting arm. He affirms His total dependability. “If it were not so, I would have told you.” Have you ever forgotten an appointment – left someone standing – forgot to go back and pick someone up.

Jesus will never forget his promises: Hebrews 13:8 (KJV) <sup>8</sup>Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever.

God's promises are certain: Hebrews 6:17 - 19 (KJV) <sup>17</sup>Wherein God, willing more abundantly to show unto the heirs of promise the immutability of his counsel, confirmed it by an oath: <sup>18</sup>That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us: <sup>19</sup>Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast, and which entereth into that within the veil;

There are things certain upon which we can depend.

Revelation 21:5 (KJV) <sup>5</sup>And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful.

Revelation 22:6 (KJV) <sup>6</sup>And he said unto me, These sayings are faithful and true: and the Lord God of the holy prophets sent his angel to show unto his servants the things which must shortly be done.

2 Timothy 1:12 (KJV) <sup>12</sup>For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day.

I know there are some who feel betrayed – let down – no one to trust in. Please turn to Jesus. “If you are tired of the load of your sin; Let Jesus come into your heart...”
