A Mother's Love

A Mother's love is something that no one can explain,
It is made of deep devotion
and of sacrifice and pain,
It is endless and unselfish and enduring come what may For nothing can destroy it or take that love away . . .
It is patient and forgiving
when all others are forsaking,
And it never fails or falters
even though the heart is breaking . . .
It believes beyond believing
when the world around condemns,
And it glows with all the beauty of the rarest, brightest gems . . .
It is far beyond defining,
it defies all explanation,
And it still remains a secret
like the mysteries of creation . . .
A many splendored miracle man cannot understand And another wondrous evidence of God's tender guiding hand.

What Parents Could Have Done

The following article is from the pen of Fred Green, Juvenile Probation Officer, Galveston, Texas. These are from actual interviews with teens on the way to reform school. Answers stem from the question, "What could parents have done to help them?"

1. KEEP YOUR COOL. Don't lose your head in every crisis. Kids need confidence and a steady hand around. Keep your soul settled.
2. DON'T GET HUNG UP ON A JOB THAT KEEPS YOU AWAY FROM HOME. Fathers, keep in touch with your kids somehow. Mothers, cut the heavy social schedule so you can be home to supervise the children.
3. DON'T GET STRUNG OUT. Stay away from liquor and sleeping pills. Be normal. Be square.
4. BUG ME A LITTLE. Use strict, loving discipline. Show the kids who's boss. They want it this way. Don't just let them ride out a storm, give them an anchor.
5. DON'T BLOW YOUR CLASS. Keep the dignity of parenthood. Stay on the pedestal your kids have put you on. Don't dress, act, or swing like the teens do.
6. LIGHT ME A CANDLE. Show your children the way of faith. Give them the security of a living faith.
7. TAKE THE WORLD OFF MY SHOULDERS. Share you kid's problems. Talk about morals, life, love, eternity, beauty, peace of mind and values with them. Help them believe the world is a good place in which to live.
8. SHAKE ME UP. Punish me when I first go wrong. Tell me why. Convince me that more severe measures will come if I transgress again in the same manner. Don't punish me just in anger, though.
9. CALL MY BLUFF. Stand firm on what's right, even when your kid threatens to run away or become a delinquent or drop out of school. Stay in there with him and the bluffing will cease in 98% of the cases.
10. BE HONEST WITH ME. All the time tell the truth. Praise when you can. Criticize when you must, but never keep your children in doubt where you stand on important matters.
