BROAD STREET CHURCH OF CHRIST

VOL. XXIX NO. 5

From Where I Sit . . .

“The Joy Of Christian Service”

Our men are set to attend the annual men’s leadership retreat this weekend at Paint Rock Valley Lodge. A good number of men who are neither elders nor deacons have signed up to attend which is most encouraging. Christian service is a responsibility that belongs to everyone.

Christianity must embody the principle of service for our Lord came to minister unto mankind: Matthew 20:28 “Even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.” (Also see Luke 22:25-27). From the Household of Onesiphorus who ministered to Paul in Ephesus and Rome (2 Tim. 1:15-16, 18) to the Household of Stephanos who were addicted to “the ministry” or service of the saints (1 Cor 16:15) time and again, the New Testament is filled with the principle of service.

It’s an honor to be called upon to serve God’s people in any capacity: Psalms 84:10 “For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand. I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.”

Peter actually treats “ministering” (from diakoneo) and “stewardship” (from oikonomos — steward, servant, manager for someone else) as a gift: 1 Peter 4:10-11 “As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth: that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.”

The word “gift” “charisma” refers to special abilities we have spiritually by the grace of God, whether of non-miraculous qualifications or of the miraculous faculty. The context here is non miraculous as it is in Romans 12:6-8 “Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith; Or ministry, let us wait on our ministering: or he that teacheth, on teaching; Or he that exhorteth, on exhortation: he that giveth, let him do it with simplicity (sincerity); he that ruleth, with diligence; he that showeth mercy, with cheerfulness.”

One of the characteristics which every Christian should cultivate is that of spontaneous participation in some phases of the services in the kingdom of God. There is great joy in serving others, and honor is bestowed on certain individuals in the Bible who were servants: Matthew 4:11, “Ministering angels;” Matthew 8:15, Peter’s mother-in-law; Matthew 20:28 concerning our Lord’s ministry; John 12:2 of Martha’s serving supper; Acts 6:2 of the Apostles not leaving the Word of God to serve tables so special servants were appointed; 1 Timothy 4:6, Timothy was to be a good “minister” of Christ.

We all have different abilities, talents, gifts from God that should be channeled to helping others. We sing: “Is your life a channel of blessing? Is the love of God flowing through you?” and we end it with the chorus: “Make me a channel of blessing today, Make me a channel of blessing, I pray. My life possessing; My service blessing; Make me a channel of blessing today.”

Jamaica Mission Trip Review 2014

On January the 17, 2014, our group of 21 began their trip from all over North America to work together in the town of Port Antonio, Jamaica. After arriving we drove for 5 hours through winding roads in the mountains to arrive at our destination. The first day we gathered supplies and organized our team for the upcoming two weeks of work. The first Sunday was a super Sunday. There were five sermons in all, one from myself, two from others on our team, and two from Jamaican preachers. The whole day was a success. The next five days we had VBS for the first time ever at this congregation. On the last day there were 130+ students. On Thursday and Friday of that week we had teachers training for the ladies and leadership classes for the men. The second Sunday we began a gospel meeting. Brad Harrub was the preacher for most of the meeting presenting three lessons about marriage and getting our families to Heaven. Over the two weeks about 20 people responded to the invitation. Several of them were erring members who had returned due to our and the congregation's efforts. While all of this was going on our team was still conducting door to door Bible studies. In the two weeks we had over 100 Bible studies. Several of them were with the same students desiring to know more. When we left there were two men very close to becoming Christians. Please pray for the Lord's Church there. They are in great need of our prayers and encouragement. Thank you for your prayers and support and help in this great work that benefits the Kingdom of Heaven.

In HIM Always,

Chris

A Little Place

"Father, where shall I work today?"
And my love flowed warm and free.
Then He pointed out a tiny spot
And said, "Tend that for Me."
I answered quickly, "Oh no, not there,
Why, no one would ever see
No matter how well my work was done.
Not a little place for me!"
And the word He spoke, it was not harsh, He answered
me tenderly;
"Ah, little one, search that heart of thine,
Art thou working for them or Me?
Nazareth was a little place
And so was Galilee."
