VOL. XXIX NO. 10

From Where I Sit . . .

“Walking With God”

“And Enoch walked with God: and he was not; for God took him” (Genesis 5:24).

What a marvelous concept that a person can walk with God and be so blessed by God! Enoch, just 7 generations removed from Adam, must have been a marvelous personality to know because of His decision to live close to God and walk with Him. The blessing he enjoyed of being taken by God, apparently without the death process, may not be one that you and I share identically with Enoch unless the Lord should return during our life span; but it serves as a reminder to us that God does take care of all those who make the right choice to walk with Him.

When one traces their walk with God through the pages of the Bible, we should examine: The marvelous Personality of God and His scheme for redeeming man. We should look at how walking with God helps us through the valley of despair, through divers temptations, and even through the valley of the shadow of death. We would benefit from examining Abraham’s walk with God through the eyes of his deep faith. He was a man who “Against hope believed in hope” in God whom he could not see (Romans 4:18). We should share along with Joseph the feeling we sometimes have of being the only one who chooses to walk with God. We must not end our walk with God without developing the vision of Peter who through his walk with God was able to keep his sights set on eternity and “look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness” (II Peter 3:13).

It may not be the case today, but there was a time when most children knew one of the “big peoples” songs better than most of the others as evidenced by their singing it so boisterously. If you were a part of that generation, can you still envision little 5 year-olds singing those “trusting” words almost off key, but so inspiringly. Our young people today may not know this song quite as well since churches have a wider variety of songs and might sing this one less often. We should, however, stay familiar with its message.

“Trust And Obey”

When we walk with the Lord
In the light of His Word,
What a glory He sheds on our way!

While we do His good will,
He abides with us still,
And with all who will trust and obey.

Trust and obey,
For there’s no other way
To be happy in Jesus,
But to trust and obey.

.... Terry Broome

JESUS
THE WAY,
THE TRUTH,
THE LIFE.

Remind Them!

Peter wrote, "Therefore, I will always be ready to remind you of these things even though you already know them, and have been established in the truth which is present with you. I consider it right, as long as I am in this earthly dwelling to stir you up by way of reminder" (2 Pet 12-13).

Preachers and teachers know that their listeners are aware of many spiritual truths, but we need to keep reminding them of those truths. Why? Because:

1. People forget (Heb. 12:5; James 1:24; 2 Pet 1:9).
2. We need to rekindle the flame (2 Tim 1:6; 2 Pet 3:1).
3. We often stop doing what is right (2 Tim 2:14).
4. We need to rethink some subjects (Rom 6:1-7, 15:15).

Reminding stirs up the heart, steers us back to God's principles and sends us back to work for God. Preachers and teachers may repeat facts and commands you have heard for years, but they are doing their job-reminding you!
