BROAD STREET CHURCH OF CHRIST

VOL. XXXI NO. 40

From Where I Sit . . .

“The Home As God Would Have It”

There is a good deal of evidence that the family unit as we once knew it is breaking up, and many of us have had to redefine what we mean by the word “family.” While a large percentage of families are still made up of a husband and wife either with or without children, a significant percentage of today’s family units have single parents, having never married, or single again as a result of a spouse dying. Additionally, an increasing number of children are being raised in broken homes from divorce, and many grandparents are raising their grandchildren. Sadly, many children are now being raised in homes of lesbian and homosexual unions which are not Biblical families. Society is being bombarded by propaganda to make this relationship acceptable.

Now more than ever in the history of our nation, we need to re-examine God’s focus on the family: The strength of the nation – in fact the welfare of the world – as well as the survival of the church – is bound up within families. From the beginning, God ordained families, and then used the home as the basis for his communication and work with mankind. He worked through Abraham’s family to bring about a great nation of Israel, and eventually the blessing upon the whole world in the birth of Christ. And who can forget Joshua’s bold declaration on behalf of his entire family, “...as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord” (Josh. 24:15).

For the Home to survive today, it must go back to God, the designer of the home. We must have a systematic program to teach God’s precepts, diligently, to our children “And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. And thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thine hand, and they shall be as frontlets between thine eyes” Deuteronomy 6:7-8.

Children will be strengthened by watching as their parents demonstrate their faith. They learn by observation long before they learn by commandments and instruction. In Deut. 6:20-25 Israel’s children were to learn of God’s involvement in their nation’s history when they asked what the commandments meant. A youngster will grow up always aware of the primacy of God and the church in life when his parents stress that he must attend every service and function of the church; when they attend with him; and when they use the opportunity to discuss why we do the things we do.

It is imperative that the home truly be Christian. Christ must be exalted as Lord of the Home. We should consider Him always as an unseen guest, and practice His presence among us. As a family we should openly espouse Christian virtues and values. We must purge out the old leaven of sin from our homes. Hospitals help folks get well by providing a clean healthful environment. A filthy, contaminated hospital would do more harm than good. So we too must put away the corrupting influence of sensuality on t.v., rental videos, music, magazines, and now the dreaded influence of pornography on the internet.

Families are so very important, yet so little time most of us spend with them. Many are too busy making a living. Their emphasis is on livelihoods instead of lives. Because the child doesn’t say “Mother, I need to talk to you!” “Dad, PLEASE give me a little of your time!” We assume all is well. That’s naivity!!!! We then neglect a relationship that only time and communication can build. Just because a spouse doesn’t say, “I need you to spend some time with me; we need to talk,” it doesn’t mean that everything is fine with the marriage. Is there any wonder our nation is suffering when the family structure is suffering? And Marriages are being broken? Realizing so much is at stake, we simply must give attention to the proper relations and proper training within our homes.

. . . . Terry Broome

Please pray for our sick and remember them with cards, calls and visits.—

Dot Stephenson remains in Huntsville Hospital, but is showing slight improvement. She still has a long way to go. No visitors. Please pray for her.

David Bellomy had a fall Sunday night. He is very sore, but no bones were broken.

Tommy Bellomy had a fall Monday and was kept overnight at HMC for observation and tests. He came home Tuesday afternoon, but is very weak.

Reginda Stubblefield, a friend of many in the congregation, is in Huntsville Hospital with cancer and in very grave condition. Keep her in your prayers.

Ken Lawrence Jr. will be staying in the hospital in B'ham until after the marrow transplant is completed. They must do chemo and radiation before the transplant. Please pray for Ken.

Shirley Ingram, friend of the Vicki Shelton, has been diagnosed with cancer. She is in Crestwood and the family requests prayers.

FORTITUDE

Purity Seminar for Teens

Mastin Lake Road church of Christ will be having a special event for teens on October 16th called Fortitude. Speakers, Joe & Erin Wells, will be speaking on purity for teens. Matthew will be taking our youth and the van will leave the parking lot at 4 p.m. Supper will be provided.

We would like to thank you for the many acts of kindness during Mother's surgery and hospital stay. We appreciate your consideration and ask for your continued prayers during this difficult time.

Becky & Richard

I'd like to thank the congregation for the cards and prayers during my recent illness.

In Christian love, Nellie Spring

Matthew has planned a trip on October 22nd to the Down on the Farm Pumpkin Patch/Corn Maze. Information and sign-up sheet is on the bulletin board.

On September 29th, the elders and Terry met with Jack Franklin in his home by his invitation. Jack confessed to the elders that for many years he had been away from the church and he wanted to get his life right with God by repenting and having the elders pray for him. Jack had begun attending again many weeks before his most recent diagnosis of cancer. The unexpected cancer surgery had delayed his intended response. The elders would like for the church to recognize Jack as a member in good standing and to keep him in prayer. He has a long battle ahead of him.

Romania Mission Trip

David and Beverly Precise will be returning to Romania (with Jim & Gloria Harrington) on December 7, 2016. We appreciate all of the items that have been given to send over. Clothes were purchased earlier in the year by Gloria when winter items were marked down. Over 170 boxes are ready to ship. Our need this year is financial assistance to get these boxes shipped. Because of heavy weight and bulkiness, we will buy toiletry items in Romania. If you would like to contribute to this work, please mark your contributions "Romania Mission". We are grateful for any and all monies, prayers, and encouragement. We pray that God will direct you and bless you in your decision to support this rewarding and humbling work.

Tailgating Party

Everyone is invited to the Tailgating Party on Friday to support Jay Jay for Section High School. It will be hosted at the home of David & Ashley Dover (1347 Main Street, Section) between 4:00 and 6:00 p.m. Boys should bring drinks and chips and girls bring sides and desserts.

Our hearts are saddened by the loss of our dear brother, Bob Harrington. He passed away on Sunday after an extended illness. His funeral service was held on Tuesday with burial at Cedar Hill Cemetery. Our sincere sympathy is extended to his entire family during this time.

Truman Roberts, brother of Roxie Wright, passed away on Thursday night. His funeral service was on Sunday in Rainsville. Our heartfelt condolences are extended to Roxie in her loss.

Trunk or Treat will be on October 29th in the church parking lot. Come and decorate your own trunk and hand out candy to the little ones. Kids will trunk or treat at 6:30 p.m.

Let's Journey Together!

An African proverb states, "If you want to go fast—go alone. If you want to go far—go together." I am always amazed when I see geese flying together in formation. Each one takes a turn in the front of the V. The entire flock shares the burden of leadership. And when they are not leading, they are honking support for the one that is. They may not fly as fast this way, but they certainly fly father. We can't do this thing called life solo. We need each other for the long journey. "Two are better than one because they have a good reward for their labor. For if they fall, one will lift up the other, but woe to him who is alone when he falls, for he hasn't another to help him up" (Ecclesiastes 4:9).
