BROAD STREET CHURCH OF CHRIST

VOL. XXXV NO. 6

From Where I Sit . . .

The Broad Street Church of Christ in Scottsboro is celebrating their 136th year of continuous existence with a special day of activities on Sunday February 23.

The church was started in Scottsboro in 1884 by Dr. Jack Rorex, a dentist, who was one of the earlier members of the Stevenson Church of Christ. Dr. Rorex made an appeal through the Gospel Advocate Magazine published in Nashville, TN for a minister to come and conduct a gospel meeting. James A. Harding, co-founder of David Lipscomb University, Nashville, TN, answered the appeal; and in January of 1884, the first service was held. In the latter part of that year, J. W. Sheppard, of Kentucky, conducted a second meeting. The church has been here continuously since January, 1884.

In 1886 the first building was erected just off the square on Peachtree Street. James A. Harding was the first minister. In 1950 a new building was erected on the corner of Broad and Charlotte. This building went through several expansions over the years, and in April of 1979, the last renovation of the building was completed.

Among the ministers who have preached for this congregation in the past are James A. Harding, A. B. Lipscomb, W. R. Craig, G. L. Mann, Jack Wilhelm, Lindsay Allen, Paul Kidwell, Sr., W. A. Black, Charles Cobb, Charles Curtis, Butch Foster, and Johnny Mack Young. Our present minister since 2002 is Terry Broome.

On Sunday February 23, in addition to morning classes at 9 AM and worship at 10 AM, there will be a potluck lunch followed by a 1:00 Afternoon Worship Service. At 2:00 we will host an area-wide Gospel Singing. We would love for our many friends in and around Scottsboro to join us especially for the 1:00 service and the 2:00 singing. We hope you will come and sing with us praises to God!!

Please pray for our sick and remember them with cards, calls and visits.—

Elane Bagley's surgery has been rescheduled for February 19th. Prayers are requested.

David Precise has a follow-up appointment on Feb. 20th.

Jim Anderson is back at the nursing home in Madison now. Keep him in your prayers.

~ TWIGS ~

TWIGS will meet on February 20th at 6:00 p.m. in the MPR. We will be assisting Cynthia in organizing literature for the children's classes. With your help, we can finish it all for her. This will also allow us to talk more about what we want to do during the year. This is a great opportunity to fellowship with our Broad St. sisters. Please join us!

Thank you very much for all the cards, prayers, thoughts and well wishes that were sent to my mom. She has her cast off and now is doing therapy. Thank you for caring!

Notes

We love you! Ursula & Marieta

Dear Scottsboro church of Christ,

Thank you for the beautiful stand of flowers. Mom so enjoyed the natural world and all its beauty. We are thankful to you for your thoughts, prayers, and being her "Scottsboro family" for so many years.

Sincerely,

*Al, Jan, Donna & Nancy
the Evett Family*

Jim Anderson spent last week in Huntsville Hospital with a urinary tract infection and pneumonia. He is back in Madison Manor; 3891 Sullivan Street; Madison, AL 35758. He is feeling better. February 15 will be his 91st birthday.

Thanks, Nell Anderson

The widows and senior ladies lunch group would like to thank those kind and loving Christians who recently surprised us with two delicious free lunches at 50 Taters. One was given to us at Christmas and one later. Your love and thoughtfulness lifted our spirits and made us feel loved and valued. Love back to you and God's blessings always.

On Sunday, February 23rd, we will celebrate the completion of 136 years of existence of the Broad Street church in Scottsboro. We will have a pot-luck luncheon after our morning service and an afternoon worship service at 1 p.m. followed by an area-wide song service at 2 p.m.

LaNelle Caudle's Sunday School class will be honoring and thanking her for her many years of teaching and other Christian service with a brunch on Saturday, Feb. 29th at 11:00 a.m. The brunch will be at LaRue Anderson's home and every lady is invited to bring a dish of their choice. A sign up list will be on the bulletin board in the lobby. We will need to have a count for LaRue who will be providing drinks, paper plates, etc.

The pantry is in need of restocking. Our next Sack Sunday will be March 1st. Please bring a sack or two of the following items: crackers, canned beans, oatmeal, canned fruit, & soup. Thanks!
