A WEEKLY DEVOTIONAL

by Steve Higginbotham

If It Isn't Broken...Break It

The truism that states, "If it isn't broken, don't fix it" may be true with some things, but not the human heart (Psalm 51:17). If our hearts aren't broken, they need to be.

Have you ever heard of "Kintsugi?" Kintsugi is the Japanese art of repairing broken pottery with a "glue" made of gold. Rather than throwing away a vase, bowl, or cup that had been dropped and broken, these items can be repaired by gluing the pieces back together with gold. The repair can actually make the piece of pottery more beautiful and more valuable than it was before it was broken.

On a personal level, I have learned the value of brokenness. For the majority of my life, everything was easy. The biggest challenges I faced throughout my youth seem trifling to me today. My life, along with my wife, had a fairy-tale beginning, but eventually we began to experience "breaks" (e.g. the miscarriage of a child; the death of my father-in-law, mother-in-law, and my dad; and most shattering, the choice of one or our children.)

These breaks, and countless others, could cause one to retreat, give up, and become bitter. They hurt (present tense), but my wife and I refuse to allow our life together to be little more than useless, broken shards of pottery littering the floor. No, instead, we've given the broken pieces to the Lord who has put us back together, I believe, even more valuable in His service than before (Psalm 147:3). The breaks haven't been desired, but they have been profitable in the hands of "The Potter" (Romans 9:20-23).

If you've been where we've been; if you are where we are; if your life has been shattered by loss, disappointment, and sin, don't give up (Galatians 6:9). God can do amazing things with the pieces of your life. In fact, he can make you more useful and beautiful than you were before you were broken.

Our sympathy is extended to the family of Sister Ruth Gray. She passed away on May 14th at Gadsden Health & Rehab. A grave side service was held on May 16th at Cedar Hill Cemetery.

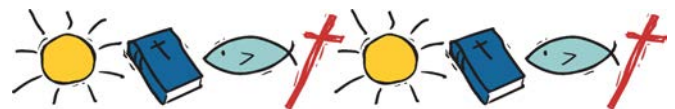

We will resume our mid-week Bible study on June 3, 2020 at 6:30 p.m. That Wednesday will begin our Summer Series with Charles Cochran as our speaker. We will all meet in the auditorium; there will be no classes.

Our Sunday evening services will resume on June 7, 2020 at 6 p.m. There will be no children's classes.

Why the Teaching of Jesus was so Effective

1. He treated people with respect. (Mark 10:46-52)
2. He spoke plainly. (John 3:1-3, Matt. 13, Matt. 4:19, John 4:1-4)
3. He spoke sympathetically. (Mark 8:2, Luke 13:34)
4. He showed no partiality. (Matt. 8:2-3, Matt. 19:14, Mark 10:21)
5. He appealed to the deepest human needs. (John 9:1-38)
6. He spoke as One having authority. (Matt. 7:28-29, 4:4-10)
7. His own life was in perfect accord with his teaching. (Isaiah 53:9, Heb. 4:15, Heb. 7:26, John 8:29, 46, 1 Peter 1:19)

IT FINDS ME

by Carroll Ellis

One of the finest tributes ever paid to the Bible was that of Coleridge, the poet. He said simply, "It finds me." That is one strong evidence of the truth of the Bible. The words in the Book of life awaken a response in our own life. Some words find us in our wrongdoings, and convict us of sin. Some words find us in our loneliness and bring the companionship of God to us. Some words find us in need and bring the divine answer to that need. Come to church service Sunday, and give the word of God a chance to find you.

CROWNED WITH HONOR

The head that once was crowned with thorns

Is crowned with glory now;

A royal diadem adorns

The mighty Victor's brow.

The highest place that heav'n affords

Is His by sov'reign right;

The King of kings, the Lord of lords,

He reigns in glory bright.

The joy of all who dwell above,

The joy of all below,

To whom He manifests His love,

And grants His name to know.
