VOL. XXXV NO. 34

From Where I Sit . . .

“This Do In Remembrance Of Me”

One author has written, “The name of Jesus is not so much written as it is plowed into the history of the world.” And it’s no wonder. He was born miraculously without an earthly father. He lived without sin. He was crucified without proper cause or formal accusation. He was raised from the dead without restraint; and today, sits on the right hand of God without an equal.

The story of Jesus is a love story composed of facts rather than fiction or fable. As a true story, it reaches back to the privacy of eternity; it is interwoven by prophecy, providence, and Jesus’ own presence in the history of man; it climaxes in a death, a burial, and a resurrection; it extends to the final destruction of this present world; and, it is a story that victoriously stretches throughout eternal bliss.

No wonder it has been heralded as the greatest story ever told. We honor this marvelous personality, this Jesus, the Son of God, each Lord’s Day by a memorial feast of His own choosing. It is a feast of simplicity without a chance for drunken revelries to tarnish its Divine purpose. With the simple emblems of unleavened bread and the fruit of the vine, Jesus set forth a means of keeping His memory alive until He comes again. It is a feast that every Christian of every social and ethnic strata can observe alike, without consideration of one’s own fame, power, or fortune. It is a feast that reminds us that the ground is level at the foot of the cross, and that all believers stand on equal terms in need of the marvelous sacrifice offered there.

This communion of which we eat is a memorial feast of the body and the blood of Jesus--a body that was suspended between heaven and earth---lifted up in crucifixion---that He might draw all men heavenward----and a blood atonement for the sins of the world.

Matthew 26:26-30 (KJV) <sup>26</sup> “And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my body. <sup>27</sup> And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it; <sup>28</sup> For this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins. <sup>29</sup> But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father’s kingdom. <sup>30</sup> And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.”

1 Corinthians 11:23-26 (KJV) <sup>23</sup> “For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread: <sup>24</sup> And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me. <sup>25</sup> After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. <sup>26</sup> For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord’s death till he come.”

As we each take the bread and the cup each first day of the week, we must do so in remembrance of that great love story of long ago that is just as fresh today, as the first time it was told. This bread is to us the body of the Lord. This fruit of the vine is to us His blood of the New Testament which was shed for many for the remission of sins. “Wounded for me, wounded for me; There on the cross, He was wounded for me.”

One at a Time

The story is told of a business man who was overworked and decided to take some time off. While vacationing on the coast, a terrible storm hit. When it died down, he decided to take a walk down the coast to see what damage had been done. As he walked along the shore, he noticed thousands of starfish which had washed upon the shore. He knew that in a few hours the sun would come out and the starfish would dry out and die. As he thought about the starfish, he noticed a young boy who was throwing the starfish back one by one. The man was amazed by the youth's diligence and shocked by his feeble attempts to make a difference. As he looked up the long beach, he saw thousands of starfish. When he caught up with the young man, he informed the boy that he could not possibly save them all and said to the little boy, "You'll never be able to make a difference to the starfish population." The boy bent down, picked up a starfish, looked at it, then threw it back into the safety of the ocean. Then he said, "I sure made a difference to that one."

We cannot personally make a difference in the lives of everyone that fills this world, but we can make a difference to a few of them. It is interesting that when Jesus spoke of those on His right hand on the Day of Judgment, he described them as having made a difference in the life of one person. He said, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me" (Matt. 25:40). I sincerely believe that each of us can make a difference in the life of someone. This is how Jesus worked—one at a time. Sure, He preached to thousands, but He visited with families, and helped individuals.

Chad's Chatter

What Makes Someone or Something Important?

There are a few factors that go into this concept. What media and society feeds us is made up of people's opinions. Often times what becomes popular is simply what just happens to catch on with an already popular celebrity or group and so it spreads.

We are often told what to wear, what to have, what to do, how to think, and what to be. To be honest, it doesn't really matter what we wear, as long as we are clothing ourselves appropriately and as GOD wishes. It doesn't really matter what we have, as long as our needs are met, and the Bible tells us not to worry about that (Luke 12:22-34). It doesn't really matter what we do, as long as we're doing GOD's will. It doesn't really matter what we are, as long as we are of GOD. It does matter how we think. We should have the mind of CHRIST (Phil. 2:5).

All the rest is basically meaningless materialism that is fed to us by the rest of the world. And, this often leads to the "I'm better than you" feelings and separates people by these very factors.

Why are we listening to the world on the subject of how to think and live? GOD has already told us how to think and live...and it's not of this world! And as far as popularity, we should only be worried about being popular in GOD's eyes.
