BROAD STREET CHURCH OF CHRIST

VOL. XXXVI NO. 1

From Where I Sit . . .

"New Beginnings"

Each time we come to a New Year we are reminded of turning over a new leaf, starting over, new beginnings, New Year Resolutions. This past week we have come to such a point of new beginnings, and churches all over the world are announcing new work plans and new dreams for the future. These are good and they help us in our quest for renewal. This is in spite of the COVID Pandemic.

When we think of having a new opportunity with entry into a new year, we should remember the words of instruction by Joshua and his officers to Israel before crossing the Jordan River into the New Territory. "We have not passed this way before"

Joshua 3:3-5 (KJV) ³And they commanded the people, saying, When ye see the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, and the priests the Levites bearing it, then ye shall remove from your place, and go after it. ⁴Yet there shall be a space between you and it, about two thousand cubits by measure: come not near unto it, that ye may know the way by which ye must go: for ye have not passed this way heretofore. ⁵And Joshua said unto the people, Sanctify yourselves: for to morrow the LORD will do wonders among you.

What a wonderful word of reassurance. Even though Israel had not passed that way before, by following God's instructions carefully, they could look forward to the marvelous power of God in their lives: v. 5 "Sanctify yourselves: for tomorrow the LORD will do wonders among you."

You and I have a similar reassurance as we chart the uncharted paths of the rest of our lives. We are in such a position today. We "have not passed this way before." God has given us a special gift of His grace to enable us to use each day what we have for His glory.

Ephesians 3:20 (KJV) ²⁰Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us,"

Philippians 2:12-13 (KJV) ¹² Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. ¹³ For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

God is at work with us and His power is at work within us to accomplish many wonderful things. Along with this promise of His power at work within us comes this reminder:

Luke 12:48 ". . .for unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required: and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more."

We each must answer the question, "What will you do with what God has given you?" For us to have a genuine renewal in our work for the Lord, we often need more than just a resolve to do things which we probably will never get around to doing, but an actual revolution in which we actually pursue the goal, make the change!!

Happy New Year!!!

God has blessed us so richly with many good friends at Broad Street. Thank you all so much for everything you have done for us.

In Christian love, Stan & Joyce Hastings

If you're having sex before marriage, go to church anyway. If you are a drug addict trying to beat addiction, go to church anyway. If you were out drunk all night and the night before, go to church anyway. If you aren't sure what gender you prefer, go to church anyway. If you can't quit that disgusting habit, go to church anyway. Church is a hospital for the broken, lost, empty, confused, desperate, and rejected. Every sinner has a future, and every Saint has a past. How do we break the chains of addiction and bondage? By prayer, prayer for you and prayer with you! There isn't a single person in the 4 walls of the church building that doesn't have something they hate or regret about their past. We've all made mistakes, and will continue to, BUT His Grace is enough!! There are things that I'd never want to admit out loud about myself, but God knows. And He loves me none the less. So whatever you've done, whatever you're doing, whatever you will do...go to church anyway, it might just change your life!!

The Elders wish to announce that Kenneth & Jean Beard have placed membership at Broad Street. They formerly attended Ider church of Christ. We look forward to working together. Please welcome them.

THINGS TO DO

On our daily "things to do" list, is there ever anything on it having to do with God? If our first priority in life is Him, why doesn't He show up more in our daily lives? Maybe our "things to do" list for tomorrow could look something like:

1. Talk to someone about what Jesus has done for you.
2. Pray for Julie.
3. Go see Frank, he needs some support.
4. Show someone outside your family that you love them.
5. Fix the leak and don't forget to buy peanut butter at the store.

COURAGE OR FOOLISHNESS

It takes a lot of courage
To put things in God's hands,
To give ourselves completely,
Our lives, our hopes, our plans,
To follow where He leads us
And make His will our own,
But all it takes is foolishness
To go the way alone!
