BROAD STREET CHURCH OF CHRIST

VOL. XXXVI NO. 21

From Where I Sit . . .

“To Be like Jesus”

Our young people sometimes sing a song that carries the thought of our title, “To Be Like Jesus.” I can’t help but think of what a wonderful world this would be if more people were to determine to be like Him. We can’t force this upon people, but we can determine for ourselves that we’ll strive to be like Him more and more each day. I was thinking along this line in the reading of Matthew 9:35-38, “And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people. But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd. Then saith he unto his disciples, The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few; Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest.”

To be like Jesus we must learn to SEE AS JESUS SAW. Jesus looked out on a world full of sin and the weariness that still surrounds mankind today, but he saw a harvest that was plenteous. You and I might see rejects but He saw potential Kingdom subjects. He saw potential while we mostly see the obstacles. He saw precious souls, and we too often see inconveniences. When Jesus looked out over the multitude, He saw sheep having no shepherd. That very well describes the condition much of our world is in today. So many suffer from a lack of guidance. Masses fail to find anyone who can actually lead them to the place of green pastures and quiet waters. How badly the world needs a shepherd. How badly we must see them in that “shepherdless” condition and point them to Jesus.

In order to be like Jesus, we also must FEEL AS JESUS FELT. He was moved with compassion on them. Our temptation is more in keeping with the apostles who wanted to send them away before time to feed them. Jesus was touched with the feelings of their infirmities. Sometimes when we see a tragedy it stirs a feeling within us, but all too often we go our way and dismiss the matter. We’re more comfortable when we don’t think about such things. When we see sin in its sordid display, we could very easily get used to it and no longer be moved over the sinner who has lost His way. Until we feel as Jesus felt, we’ll not consistently offer the saving Gospel to those who need it the worst – the Lost.

We so badly need to PRAY AS JESUS PRAYED. He not only poured his own heart out to the Father on behalf of a bunch of raw recruits known as the apostles, but he encouraged them to “Pray ye the Lord of harvest, that he will send forth laborers into his harvest.” We need to cultivate the behavior pattern of constantly praying that God will not only send laborers, but that he will help each of us to be the laborers. We need to pray for doors of opportunity to come our way, and then we need to open our eyes to these opportunities to tell others about Jesus. How often we just go our way never mentioning the Lord, salvation, the church, or our interest in helping the lost to find these.

Then we need to put into practice the very principles Jesus lived by. We must DO AS JESUS DID. He took the time to minister to these people and to preach to them. You and I can’t heal them with miracles, but we can minister to them both physically and spiritually in their diseases. Peter tells us that Jesus “went about doing good.”

The world would be a better place if these principles were put into our lives. As God’s family, we must adopt them in hopes that others may see Jesus living in us.

. . . . Terry Broome

Please pray for our sick and remember them with cards, calls and visits.

Terry Broome had knee replacement surgery at HMC on Tuesday. He will be there a couple more days before going to a rehab facility. Please remember him in your prayers.

Andrew Gardner, brother of Joel Gardner, is to undergo another biopsy of the tumor. If this one shows no cancer, he will go to Vanderbilt Hospital for surgery to remove it from his colon. Please continue to pray for no cancer to be present.

Marty Broome, Terry's brother, experienced stroke-like symptoms that his doctors have been unable to find a cause. He will be going to Shand's Hospital in Gainesville, FL on June 10th for evaluation in the neurology department. Prayers are greatly appreciated.

Mary Hodge, a member of the church that has been visiting with us, had surgery for cancer last Tuesday. Our prayers are requested. Her address is 88 Sumner Dr., 35769.

Cissi Britt, sister of Buddy Holt, suffered a stroke. She has been released from the hospital but will have heart surgery in mid-June. Remember her in your prayers.

 and the family of Lisa Allen

Jim Brown has written a book during the Covid Pandemic - stay at home time. The title of the book is Every Life Has a Story. The book is a collection of human interest stories about his Mom and Dad and their 10 children growing up and living on a farm. Also, included in the book is the story of Jim's search for the Lord's Way and his conversion to Christ.

Some of you have expressed an interest in reading his stories and he has given us the opportunity to have access to the stories. The book is not for sale but was written as a gift to his family. Jim has placed 3 copies of the book in the church library and will leave them for 2 or 3 months to give those of you that are interested a chance to check out one of the books for a period of 2 to 3 weeks.

Just go into the church library and look for the binders with a red, white and blue cover. Please don't forget to sign and date the check out sheet so the books will not get lost. Thank you for your interest.

Household items are needed for a relative of Brenda Brockway. Please contact Brenda to donate any of the following items: sofa, small dining table & chairs, washer & dryer, t.v. stand.

ROCKET CITY YOUTH RALLY

On June 12th there will be an Area Wide Youth Rally at Madison Academy. We will have two guest speakers, lunch and tournament style games. Registration will begin at 8:30 AM and activities will end around 4 PM. We want to make this event well attended and hopefully an annual occurrence. Please come and support our area wide congregations so we can encourage each other and be stronger Christians. I am asking for Broad Street to provide drinks along with Chase Park. So, if you can bring a case of drinks or bottled water, drop them off in the foyer.

Thank you, Chad Brown

Our Bereavement Food Committees need reorganizing. Please sign the list on the bulletin board in between the foyers if you are willing to participate in this good work. Also, please indicate if you would be willing to be a chairman or co-chairman of a group.

Memorial Day
Remember Those Who Gave Their Lives

Gratitude

For sunlit hours and visions clear,
For all remembered faces dear;
For comrades of a single day
Who sent us stronger on our way;
For friends who shared the year's long road
And bore with us the common load;
For hours that levied heavy tolls,
But brought us nearer to our goals;
For insights won through toil and tears—
We thank the Keeper of our years.
