BROAD STREET CHURCH OF CHRIST

VOL. XXXVI NO. 22

From Where I Sit . . .

“The Local Church and I”

We are all blessed to be a part of God’s family, universally and locally. Local congregations working and worshipping together are a glory to God when they conduct themselves in harmony with God’s descriptions of the work and the teachings from the Bible. I like to see a person proud of their local congregation, and certainly we each should strive to live so that the local church is proud that we are members that help make it up. Whatever we do, we should always consider whether it brings glory to God or shame to His Holy name (see Ephesians 3:20-21).

The local church provides you and me with all the blessings associated with the membership in the Lord’s church: The bond of fellowship; the strength of edification; the joy of worship; the balm of comfort; and the lift of encouragement. Local churches are there for us and can weep with us when we weep; minister to us when we are sick; comfort us when we are broken hearted; encourage us when we need lifting up; and exhort us to righteous living even when we grow slack.

In turn, we owe something as individual members to the local church. We certainly owe our undivided interest in the welfare of members both individual and collectively. We owe a steadfast attachment to the work and worship of the church. We owe a sense of responsibility that doesn’t “pass the buck” but rather helps to bare the burden of the whole.

We owe the local church our desire and the wish of our every thought, the theme of our every prayer that we will be built up in the most holy faith and be found acceptable to God. How strong is your desire for the church at Broad Street to be a holy and spiritual temple for God’s dwelling?

We certainly owe the local church our cooperation in every facet of its work. The First Century church demonstrated a tremendous unity in sharing, caring (Acts 4:32-35) and their sense of being fellow-laborers. Bystanders and onlookers need to rethink and reexamine their relationship to the local church in light of the plan set forth in God’s Word.

We certainly owe the local church our encouragement through faithful attendance, consistent giving, and positive influence for that which is right. This is truly a remarkable congregation, and a great number of people take very seriously all these aspects of their membership at Broad Street Church of Christ – a local congregation of God’s family. May we all grow in the grace of God and the unity of the Spirit.

. . . . Terry Broome

Please pray for our sick and remember them with cards, calls and visits.

Terry Broome is doing well with his physical therapy at Highlands Health & Rehab. He will probably be there another week. Please continue to pray for him.

Andrew Gardner, brother of Joel Gardner, had surgery to remove 95% of the tumor and the pathology report came back showing the tumor was benign. The other 5% of tissue will be removed in about two weeks and biopsy done to rule out all cancer. Please continue to pray for Andy.

Marty Broome, Terry's brother, experienced stroke-like symptoms that his doctors have been unable to find a cause. He will be going to Shand's Hospital in Gainesville, FL on June 10th for evaluation in the neurology department. Prayers are greatly appreciated.

Cissi Britt, sister of Buddy Holt, suffered a stroke. She has been released from the hospital but will have heart surgery in mid-June. Remember her in your prayers.

Chad's Chatter

Karma vs Forgiveness

Have you ever thought about the word karma and what it represents? Do good or bad and you'll get what you deserve on this earth, is the basic idea. However, forgiveness offers something totally different and it isn't dependant on what we should get or what we deserve. It is a gift from GOD through CHRIST and freely given to any that follow Him. He also asks us to do the same to others. Don't forget, if we want forgiveness, we need to forgive others, because none of us deserve it! So much better than "karma" and, it really happens!

Matthew 6:14; Ephesians 4:32

Youth Group Events Coming Up

3 events that we are trying to make staples this summer for the KFC (Kids For CHRIST) group and the Teen group are: KFC Tuesdays, Wednesday Night Dinner at 5:30 for teen group, and TNTs (Thursday Night Teens). Also, this Friday, we are having a Fun Day Friday! For this Friday event (June 4), we are going to try bowling. I will send details about this event to the groups involved, but I just wanted to make the congregation aware of some things we are trying to do with our youth of the congregation. If you have any questions about any work we are doing, never hesitate to ask! Thanks so much for all you do and all your support for our families and children.

AFTER THE RAIN

The withering grass knows not its needs;
The falling rain knows not its worth;
But God the silent suffering heeds;
And bids His showers refresh the earth.
My drooping heart oft may not know
What things to pray for as I ought;
But God will needed good bestow,
Beyond what I have asked or thought.
