BROAD STREET CHURCH OF CHRIST

VOL. XXXVI NO. 28

From Where I Sit . . .

“Victorious Christian Living”

Preparation for heaven is merely begun, not completed with baptism. No one is baptized into heaven, but into Christ, into a new life, a new relationship. Living the new life in Christ indeed begins with the new birth, putting on Christ in baptism (Galatians 3:26-27) but it does not end with this conversion experience. Paul affirms in Romans Chapter Six, verses three through six that we are raised from that burial to walk in the newness of life. For that reason, every church member needs a thorough and practical knowledge of how to live the Christian life completely and successfully. It’s a great tragedy when a baptized believer fails to endure in the new life to which he is called.

Hear the Apostle Paul’s words: “Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus” (Philippians 3:13,14). We must press on in our effort to walk with the Lord with no looking back and longing for the world of sin we’ve come out of.

One of the first things we need to remember is that we have changed commanders in chief. No longer are we servants of Satan and sin, but now we serve Christ (Romans 6:17-19). All relationships change when one becomes a Christian. We are new creatures (2 Cor. 5:17). For the mind and the soul, conversion is a vast change from being “without hope” and “without God in the world” to being a child of God (Ephesians 2:12). When one truly obeys the Gospel, he is turned from “darkness to light and from the power of Satan unto God.”

Many “grow weary” in well doing (Galatians 6:9) and many “fainthearted” ones turn back (Hebrews 12:3). Some love the present world and turn away. Others drift away by gradual neglect. The marvelous truth is that it doesn’t have to be this way, but we must be active in the process to avoid such pitfalls. Someone described it as having to put logs on a fire to keep it burning. It is so wonderful when we see Christians who have walked with Jesus all their lives and who just grow deeper in their faith and richer in their spiritual understanding of why they exist. These are people who have added “logs” to keep the fire of faith burning within their hearts.

As Abraham and Moses of the long ago, we must have the “forward” look (Hebrews 11:8-10; 23-29). We must endure: “But Christ as a son over his own house, whose house are we, if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope unto the end” (Hebrews 3:6).

May I encourage you today to make the choice to begin a new life in Christ. For anyone who has drifted away from their hope in Christ, and grown weary, there’s a race to run and a crown to attain. Get back on track and walk with the Lord.

Chad's Chatter

CHRIST'S KINGDOM

John 18:36 JESUS answered, "My kingdom is not of this world. If My kingdom were of this world, MY servants would fight, so that I should not be delivered to the Jews; but now My kingdom is not from here."

Do we realize this world is not CHRIST'S kingdom? How many times do we have to hear it to believe it? We try to add to this house (our life on this earth) like it's a kingdom. We try to fancy up this decaying tent like it's our forever home. Have you ever not fixed something up in your current house because it wasn't your long-term home? You didn't want to waste time, money, and effort on something that wasn't going to be worth it, right?

Are we fighting for HIS true kingdom? CHRIST said "If My kingdom were of this world, My servants would fight..." So, are we fighting for anything? Are we striving for CHRIST'S kingdom to have as many members as possible? Are we serving His kingdom in every way that we need to? Are we truly His servants or do we serve something else? John 12:26 26 Whoever serves me must follow me; and where I am, my servant also will be. My Father will honor the one who serves me. Are we trying to make this perishable world something more than it is? If so, are we ready to shake off the confusion and realize that CHRIST'S kingdom is so much more than this old world?

"Reading about nature is fine, but if a person walks in the woods and listens carefully, he can learn more than what is in books, for they speak with the voice of God."
— George Washington Carver

“Listen” to the Sky

Each and every shining star
Testifies from vast afar
All the planets do agree
The moon joins in with unity
The marching clouds e'er proclaim
As does the sun with heat and flame
The brilliant sky and all beyond
Shouts “it’s through God that we spawned”

“The heavens declare the glory of God, and the sky above proclaims his handiwork”
(Psalm 19:1, ESV).
