VOL. XXXVI NO. 32

From Where I Sit . . .

“Shining As Lights”

It becomes evident when one reads the Scripture that God intends for His children to have an influence on the world around them. Why else would Jesus affirm “Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid” (Matt. 5:14)? What a tremendous evaluation of the role and worth of a Christian in the service of the Lord. If one gets to feeling sorry for his or her self and begins to think they are meaningless and have nothing to offer, Jesus reminds us that we are “lights.”

It would be easy to just sit back and let the world pass us by and not want to get involved. It's easy to reason that we're so small in number we can't make much difference. Admittedly the task of changing the world appears monumental, and especially when we look at the picture as one gigantic mountain to climb. Yet we're reminded that it only takes a little spark to get a large fire going. When we break our task down into smaller increments, we really can make a difference. Jesus wants us to “shine” as lights.

The influence I exercise over another person is very real – whether for good or evil. Through encouragement, kindness, compassion, a loving outreach, one person can draw another to desire a better way of life. In turn that one so influenced can affect the attitudes of others around them. There is an exponential benefit of just one person shining as a light in the world.

We need to recognize that Jesus can use us to bring light, hope, salvation into the lives of people with whom we are associated. We're not the source of the light, but merely a reflection of His light, as we allow that light to change our lives. Thus Paul charges Christians, “Do all things without murmurings and disputings: That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world; Holding forth the word of life; that I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain” (Philippians 2:14-16). Instead of causing others to look on Christianity with contempt, Christians are to be blameless, harmless, without rebuke.

May we all make the resolve to “Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven” (Matt. 5:16).

While visiting their daughter in Winchester, Tennessee last week, Rick Lusk was baptized for the remission of his sins. Nancy also wanted to be forgiven for shortcomings in her life and to rededicate her life to Christ. We are thrilled with Rick's decision to obey the gospel and Nancy's desire to be restored!

Chad's Chatter Superman

Did you watch the old Superman movies? Or, maybe you've seen the newer versions. Either way, it's an exciting movie about a foreigner who isn't always allowed to use his power for fear of being rejected, feared, misused, misunderstood, or any number of other things when he was a kid. Clark Kent is a boy that has to grow up knowing he is stronger, faster, and more powerful than anyone else who walks this earth and not tell anyone. And yet, he has to control his own power and show humility at times instead of proving how powerful he is all the time. We admire Superman. We want to meet him. We want to see him, be him, etc! It's a really neat story, but it's not a real story. Still, have you ever asked yourself, where did this story come from? Where did the idea of a man living on this earth, more powerful than all of us, who doesn't belong here, come from? Where did the story of a man who uses his ability to save others and humbles himself constantly get started?

JESUS is greater than angels. JESUS is greater than Moses. JESUS is greater than the Mosaic priesthood (read the book of Hebrews). And yet, JESUS left the splendor of heaven (a real place, not a made up world), not so He could be worshiped, praised, honored, or to take His rightful place as KING of Kings and LORD of Lords, but to humbly serve us and ultimately give His physical and perfect life to take the place of our flawed and sin filled physical lives. He could have shown those soldiers how powerful He really was and done any number of miracles instead of hanging on that cross. He could have destroyed anyone that got in His way and denied Him. But, instead He asked for GOD to have mercy on us as He suffered on the cross for you and for me!

Superman never claimed to be able to forgive our sins, he just tried to be a good citizen of earth and protect the people. JESUS wants each and every one of us to be citizens of Heaven and heirs to the throne! Anyone can choose to take on His name and be a child of GOD! JESUS didn't just claim to be able to give us full forgiveness, He proved it!!! Superman is a made up story. JESUS actually did miraculously heal people, raise people from the dead, and beat the worst bad guy by giving us His perfect life for you and me! JESUS isn't a fairytale or made up story like Superman, and He's way better than any super hero could dream of being.

2 Corinthians 8:9 ...yet for your sake He became poor, so that you by His poverty might become rich.

John 16:33 "...but take heart; I have overcome the world."

That Little Extra

At 211 degrees water is hot. At 212 degrees, it boils. And with boiling comes steam. Steam when channeled correctly can re-move stains, kill weeds, disinfect, and can even power an engine. One degree makes all the difference. In the Bible Jesus states, (Matt 5:40-41), "If someone wants to sue you in order to take your shirt, let him have your coat too. And if anyone forces you to go one mile, go with him two miles."

In this passage Christ is teaching us to yield to service and double it rather than refuse it. If you are called on today to serve; could you do some extra work, give some extra time, or maybe even give an extra smile? It can make a difference. We cannot begin to imagine all God can do when we give that little extra.
