Season's Greetings
From The Office Staff
And Our Families

We Wish You And Yours
The Very Happiest of Holiday Cheer.
“May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace...”
Romans 15:13

Terry and Kathy
Chad and Pam
Lisa and John

Please pray for our sick and remember them with cards, calls and visits.

Elsie Goodman has a nerve problem in her back along with a foot issue that is making it difficult for her to walk. She is struggling and requests the prayers of the church.

Donna Pace will be taking some shots and therapy for her neck problems. She will also undergo another MRI and meet with a neurologist on Dec. 20th. Please continue to pray for her.

Bob Rice underwent a heart procedure at Huntsville Hospital on Tuesday. The procedure was successful and he is recovering at home. Please continue your prayers for Bob.

Carol Bell is really struggling with her health. She saw her doctor last week and they are going to try some different medications for her heart. Please pray for Carol.

Jill Russell will be going to Vanderbilt for tests and possible treatment of her lungs. Prayers Requested.

Lisa Frank, Joe Frank's daughter is in the hospital in Jacksonville, FL, with COVID. Joe requests prayers.

Molly and Olivia Necklaus, twin granddaughters of Janet Necklaus have the flu, and Molly has strep. Prayers please.

Which way will you go?

I love songs. One of the reasons is because they tell stories that are easily remembered. This is especially important when the stories are spiritual in nature. Another reason I love songs is because they can convey real significant meanings in such simple language. Read this simple song. It refers to 5 different bible stories in one song with a simple question for us to consider. How simple the song and yet, how sobering the question.

Chorus:

There's a fork in the middle of the road

There's a fork in the middle of the road

There's a fork in the middle of the road

Oh which way will you go, oh?

Noah was a man of oh such faith. He trusted in the LORD and His saving grace. When the flood took away the human race. Noah was found in a safe, safe place.

(chorus)

David's brothers, just like Saul. Trembled when they heard the giants call. But David took a rock and made Goliath fall. He trusted in the King who is LORD of all.

(chorus)

Daniel was a man who always prayed. He trusted in the LORD and he never strayed. So the claws and the jaws of the lions were stayed. He trusted in the LORD and it sure paid.

(chorus)

Jonah didn't do as GOD did wish. So the LORD sent a great big fish. He came along with a swish swish swish. And Jonah became a tasty dish.

(chorus)

JESUS died on the cross. His mother cried at the loss. The devil tried to be the boss. But JESUS rose the victor of the cross.

Gen. 6-9; I Sam. 17:1-58; Daniel 6:1-23; Jonah 11-17; Matthew 27:25; John 16:33

This song was given to me by the Rice family that owns Backwoods Christian Camp. Thank you!

-Chad
