BROAD STREET CHURCH OF CHRIST

VOL. XXXVI I NO. 14

From Where I Sit . . .

“Our God Is An Awesome God”

Our young people have a devotional song that declares these wonderful words of praise to God. Indeed He is an awesome God. There are qualities about Him that compel our most reverential respect for His power and glory. What a striking personality He is! Our loving Heavenly Father is not a tyrant or impersonal being, but rather one who urges us to come to Him. He’s made it easy and provided the way to approach Him through Jesus Christ. We can now come reverentially as well as boldly or confidently before His throne of grace to petition for His help in our times of need. Heb. 4:14-16, “Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession. For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.”

That approach is only made possible through Jesus Christ. One who is not in a covenant relationship with Jesus Christ cannot expect a hearing from this loving, Heavenly Father. We are, afterall, “... children of God through faith in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ” (Galatians 3:26-27 NKJV). For all of us who are so eager to ask God’s help during a stressful time in our lives, we should ponder the significance of being in the right relationship with Him which entitles us to call Him Father. Unfaithfulness in one’s Christian life voids our guarantee of His listening ear. “If I regard iniquity in my heart, the Lord will not hear me:” (Psalms 66:18).

Ponder these great words of comfort for those who are in the right relationship with Him: The message of Psalms 31 is that we can find our refuge in God. David triumphantly proclaims in Psalms 116:1 that God “has heard my voice”. In turn he was willing to “wait for the Lord” in Psalms 130:5. After Habakkuk cried out to the Lord, “how long wilt thou not hear?” (1:1), he resolves in 2:1 to “watch to see what he will say unto me, and what I shall answer when I am reprov’d.” In essence he resolves to listen to the answer that God makes to him.

In the New Testament, the colors and traits of God are clearly seen in the form of Jesus Christ. John 14:9 “...he that hath seen me hath seen the Father.” There is clarity in Jesus saying “For God so loved the world...” (John 3:16). Jesus reasons with gentleness and penetrating power in Matthew 6:26, “Behold the fowls of the air....” and “consider the lilies of the field....” (3:28). God provides for them. Will He not much more provide for you? “Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to day is, and to morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith? (Mat 6:30). Why be so faithless? We must understand how much God cares for us. He knows our needs and supplies our wants (Matt. 6:32).

The personality of God reveals that He is searching for you. Jesus died for each of us on the cross. It’s the Father who cares who calls us, “Come Home.”

Chad's Chatter

Where do ideas come from?

I have a lot of ideas. Some of my ideas are from my childhood experiences, some from my peers, others are from my parents, personal studies, programs I've watched, people I've heard speak on various topics, and a number of other places. Of course, it seems like all my ideas are manufactured within myself. However, as I think of ideas, I use my memory and resources to gather enough information to come up with my own ideas. Even if I feel like I'm completely original in my thoughts, in reality, I do not think I can have a truly original and objective thought. At least not without drawing some from my own personal experiences and understanding.

Therefore, if this is true, it is of the utmost importance WHAT I fill my mind with! If I constantly fill my mind with nonsense, then I will likely regurgitate or reuse that nonsense in my own life and the way I see things/understand things. If I fill my mind with evil thoughts and selfishness, then I will likely justify evil thoughts and selfishness in my own surroundings and behavior.

Lastly, if I surround myself with good thoughts and unselfish people, then I will start to understand things better from a good and unselfish point of view. Of course, we wouldn't have any thoughts at all if it weren't for GOD! We wouldn't have air to breathe or minds to think with to start the process. So, shouldn't I listen to His wisdom and try to fill my mind with His truth? After all, GOD tells us what truth is, it is not our job to dispute Him, but to try and understand Him and His truth. His truth is the truth! This is why, I believe, if we think opposite of GOD, then His truth no longer makes sense. Listen to this scripture: 1 Corinthians 3:18-19 "Let no one deceive himself. If anyone among you seems to be wise in this age, let him become a fool that he may become wise. For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with GOD. For it is written, "He catches the wise in their own craftiness";"

In the end, I would rather have GOD's wisdom, than to be a fool for the world. What do you think? What is "your idea" on the matter?

Self Improvement Requires A Better Model

Regarding improvement, Oliver Goldsmith once said, "People seldom improve when they have no other model but themselves to copy after." How true! That's why God gave us the perfect model to follow (Romans 8:29) instead of the example of the world (Romans 12:12).
