BROAD STREET CHURCH OF CHRIST

VOL. XXXVI I NO. 15

From Where I Sit . . .

"The Burial and Resurrection of Jesus"

Imagine what disillusionment, confusion, and anguish the followers of Jesus Christ felt the day their Lord and Savior died. Not only were they experiencing the loss of a dear friend, but for a time, they too experienced a loss in their faith. God seemed to be so silent. Why was this happening? Was Jesus really God? Faith was being shaken. Now imagine being the Son of God, all-powerful and totally capable of getting off that cross. Jesus could have easily decided to rewind the tape, edit the story, freeze the crowd and disappear. He did not because He knew He was on a mission from God to save the world from their sins and bring freedom to men and women cursed by the Fall. (Matt. 26:39, 42) "O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me: nevertheless not as I will, but as thou wilt." "O my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done."

Jesus was so "in tune" with God that despite His divine power and authority, He submitted his very life to God the Father (Phil. 2: 5-8). The death of Jesus Christ was the ultimate in humility, the ultimate in love, the ultimate in doing what was right no matter what the cost. (Hebrews 2:9) "But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honor; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man."

As people travel about the world a common feature on many tours is a great leader's burial place. Visit Mt. Vernon, the home of President Washington, and you can visit his tomb. Go to Arlington Cemetery and you can visit the tomb of Kennedy. In Salt Lake City you can visit the tomb of the founder of the Mormon church. In Saudi Arabia you can visit the tomb of Mohammed. The Buddha, curiously enough, is buried in 8 different places, his body was divided up among the contenders to be his burial spot. Peter said of King David, "I may say to you confidently of the Patriarch David that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day" (Acts 2:29).

If you visit Jerusalem you can go to at least two separate tombs of Jesus. The reason it is hard to determine his exact tomb is simple. Neither tomb had a body in it. We cannot say where Jesus was buried because he did not stay there. For us, this is good news. Had Jesus stayed in the tomb, we would have no reason for being who we claim to be. All hope would be lost. David stayed in his tomb, but being a prophet, he predicted that Jesus would not! (Psa 16:8-10; Acts 2:30-31).

Paul simply put it this way, "If Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins" (1 Cor. 15:17). The resurrection is the confirmation of everything Jesus claimed for himself. On the cross he paid the penalty for our sins, but the assurance of that transaction is the resurrection. We could say of any dead person "He died for our sins." But how can we know it is true? It is only in the risen Lord that we have assurance that he indeed has power over sin and death. It is important to our whole faith, to our very standing before God that Jesus is risen. Even as we come to face our own deaths, we need not fear for Christ has gone before us. This is the good news. Christ is Risen! And He is not unique in His resurrection. As He is risen so also shall we be raised from the dead. As He lives, so we shall live forever with Him. "Even death's cold wave I need not fear, since God through Jordan leadeth me."

. . . . Terry Broome

Please pray for our sick and remember them with cards, calls and visits.

Sam Wright had to be moved to Albertville to be cared for there. Please be praying for Sam and Roxie. The address is Albertville Nursing Home & Rehab Select, 750 AL Hwy 75 N, Albertville, AL 35950.

Joan Jackson has been admitted to Huntsville Hospital and is in the ICU. Please pray for Joan.

Mary Lawrence returned home and will need home healthcare for a while. Keep her in your prayers.

Brenda Wininger, aunt of David Precise, had a stent inserted for the blockages around her heart last Friday. She also has a cancerous mass in her kidney and will undergo surgery to remove it in a couple of months. Please keep her in your prayers.

Deby Petty was scheduled for knee replacement surgery today (Wed.) in Huntsville. Prayers are appreciated.

Hillary Broome, Terry's brother, has 80-90 percent blockage in the only two bypasses that were still good of the five original. He is having to wait for the surgeon and cardiologist to determine what procedure might help.

Our heartfelt sympathy is extended to Misti Myers and her family in the loss of her grandfather, H.M. Simpson. He passed away on April 8th and his funeral service was conducted on Monday, April 11th in Alexander City, AL. Please remember this family in your prayers.

We welcome a new family to the Broad Street congregation. Hughes & Abby Edmonds met with the Elders and made known their desire to place membership here. They have a son named Levi. Their address is 10 Hillsdale Dr. Scottsboro, AL 35769.

NEW MEMBERS

We will be updating our Online Church Directory in May. Pictures will be taken after the morning service on May 15th and 22nd. So, if you have never had your picture taken or you need to update your existing picture, please plan to stay one of those days. Thank you!

Chad's Chatter

What do I deserve?

Do we usually get what we deserve? Do we ever get what we deserve? Most people think of that statement as a sense of entitlement. Maybe the world would think "I deserve better" or "I don't deserve to be treated that way." Still, what we usually get is much better than what we actually deserve. Plain and simple, we are sinners and what we deserve is death or separation from GOD. However, what we get is an opportunity to be with Him in heaven because of the sacrifice that JESUS gave for all of us. We need to quit listening to the world that feels entitled to greatness and realize the greatness that GOD has given us, even though we don't deserve it!

- 2 Samuel 12:5 (David realized what he deserved)
- John 8:21-24 (Jesus tells us we will die in our sins if we do not believe in Him)

PUPPET PROGRAM - April 17, 2022

Fight the Good Fight

Fight the good fight with all thy might;
Christ is thy Strength and Christ thy Right.
Lay hold on life, and it shall be
Thy joy and crown eternally.
Run the straight race thro' God's good grace;
Lift up thine eyes and seek His face.
Life with its way before us lies;
Christ is the Path and Christ the Prize.
Cast care aside; upon thy Guide
Lean, and His mercy will provide;
Lean, and the trusting soul shall prove
Christ is its Life and Christ its Love.
Faint not nor fear, His arms are near;
He changeth not, and thou art dear.
Only believe, and thou shalt see
That Christ is All in all to thee.

John Samuel Bewley Monsell (1811-1875)

First Thessalonians 1:6-8 demonstrates three qualities of the Thessalonian Christians as they “became followers of Christ.” They EMBRACED the word of God (1:6), they became EXAMPLES to other believers (1:7), and they were active in EVANGELISM (1:8).
