BROAD STREET CHURCH OF CHRIST

VOL. XXXVI I NO. 25

From Where I Sit . . .

“The Challenge of the Cross”

There are some who seem to be born to sacrifice themselves for the good of others. In the animal kingdom, we accept this for our own survival when it comes to using these animals for a vital food supply. We reason, “They were born for this purpose.” It’s more difficult to accept it that there are individuals who freely and selflessly choose a course that would mean their deaths for the good of mankind. Yet Jesus lived for this very purpose: to offer himself as a sacrifice in the place of others:

Matthew 20:28 (KJV) <sup>28</sup>Even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

He came to destroy him who had the power of death, Satan:

Hebrews 2:14 (KJV) <sup>14</sup>Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil;

He came to put away the guilt of sin that was destroying the race:

Hebrews 9:26b (KJV) <sup>26</sup>. . .but now once in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

As the cross was a challenge to Jesus, it is also a challenge for His disciples

Mark 10:38 - 39 (KJV) <sup>38</sup>But Jesus said unto them, Ye know not what ye ask: can ye drink of the cup that I drink of? and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with? <sup>39</sup>And they said unto him, We can. And Jesus said unto them, Ye shall indeed drink of the cup that I drink of; and with the baptism that I am baptized withal shall ye be baptized:

His example calls for our willingness to be cross bearers as well.

Matthew 16:24 (KJV) <sup>24</sup>Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

The cross is always before us as a challenge to our lives, to be just like Christ. As it was the culmination of Jesus’ life, living loyal to the cross must be the culmination of ours as well.

RUN FROM SIN

How do I run from sin?

1. Identify Sin. Then identify Your Sin.
  - a. I John 3:1-6
2. Have a plan to resist sin. Study, pray, and plan
  - a. Luke 22:40 And when he came to the place, he said to them, "Pray that you may not enter into temptation." When we are tired and in the dark it is the perfect time for the devil to strike with a temptation that is hardest to resist.
3. Resist/confront it from the first hint of sin! Gen. 39:8 (but he refused...)
  - a. Col. 3:5 Put to death, therefore, whatever belongs to your earthly nature: sexual immorality, impurity, lust, evil desires and greed, which is idolatry.
4. Be reasonable, do not try to justify sin.
  - a. Genesis 39:8 ....How then can I do this great wickedness and sin against GOD?
5. Do not grow weary, no matter how many times the temptation arises.
  - a. Genesis 39:10
6. Remove yourself from the situation. If the temptation is too great, flee from it! Run Forest Run!!
  - a. Genesis 39:12 she caught him by his garment, saying, "Lie with me." But he left his garment in her hand and fled and got out of the house.
7. But remember, when we mess up, we can always come back to GOD.
  - a. I John 1:9 If we confess our sins, HE is faithful and just to forgive us our sins...
  - b. And remember, we are in this sin battle together. James 5:19

WAS IT YOU?

Someone started the whole day wrong –
 Was it you?
 Someone robbed the day of its song.
 Early this morning someone growled,
 Someone sulked until others scowled,
 And, soon, harsh words were passed around –
 Was it you?
 Someone started the day aright –
 Was it you?
 Someone made it happy and bright,
 Early this morning, we are told,
 Someone smiled, and all the day through,
 The smile encouraged young and old –
 Was it you?
