BROAD STREET CHURCH OF CHRIST

VOL. XXXVII NO. 36

From Where I Sit . . .

Special Recognition!!

Eighteen years ago Lisa Porch went to work with us in the church office, the first two years as part time and the past sixteen years as our full time secretary. I had been minister here only two years when she started the job. I had the privilege of working with her the entire eighteen years of her service to the church. Her two daughters, Kelsey and Lydia grew up with a mother who, as church secretary, had a very responsible position with the Broad Street Church of Christ. Her husband, John, became one of our hard working deacons.

She was extremely helpful to me and to this congregation in every facet of church work. Nearly two years ago she let us know of her desire to retire, but her loyalty to the church kept her from leaving us high and dry. She stayed on until we could find someone who was willing to take on such a major responsibility. Then she stayed on to train her replacement. Lisa has been a true friend to everyone that called or visited our offices, and patiently took notes that members verbally passed along to her in the church building before and after worship services. I often considered that this was more of a ministry for her instead of merely a job. She has been a joy to work with, very dependable, kind, and totally conscious of making everyone feel worthwhile, from church members to benevolent cases at our front door and on the phone. Thank you, Lisa, for your devotion to the Lord's work! We wish you well in your remaining life's pursuits.

Welcome Aboard!! To Wendy Baird, our new church secretary. She's a quick learner, and already getting up to speed with core responsibilities. Thank you for stepping forward to serve the congregation. My pending retirement will keep me from having another eighteen year history working with a proficient church secretary, but I can already tell that I'll enjoy what weeks or months we have!! May God bless your undertaking!!

. . . Terry Broome

Please pray for our sick and remember them with cards, calls and visits.

Charlotte Vinson will be beginning chemotherapy on September 15th. Prayers are requested.

Chad's Chatter

Burden Shop

The SWAT team (Skits With A Truth) does a skit having a guy that goes to the burden store to exchange his burden. The guy comes in dragging his burden, hoping to make a trade. The shop owner takes the burden and places it in his shop agreeing to make a trade with him. As they look at 2 or 3 from the warehouse of different burdens to choose from, they are one by one dismissed for how much of a burden they would be. The one who is trying to trade his original burden finally comes across a tiny burden that he has decided upon. The shop owner acts surprised and dismayed at his request. The shop owner tells him he cannot have that burden "because that's the burden you came in with! I can't give it back to you." The guy realizes just how small of a burden he brought in compared to the rest.

I really like this particular skit and have seen them perform it multiple times. It is so easy to think our own burdens are so heavy and unbearable until we are able to compare them to others. There is almost always someone that has more on their plate than we do. It's like the old saying, "you don't know what you have until it's gone." Similarly, "you don't know how good you have it until you see someone who has it much worse."

However, the real take away is not whether we have it good or bad, but rather to focus on GOD and what He's done for us instead. Focus on living for Him, serving others and our end reward of heaven! It doesn't do us any good to dwell on our burdens/problems.

Matt. 25:40; I Thess. 5:16-18; II Cor. 4:15-16

According to You

The Gospels of Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John are read by more than a few. But the one most read and commented on is the Gospel according to you.

You are writing a gospel, a chapter a day, by the things that you do and the words that you say.

Men read what you write, whether faithless or true. Say what is the gospel according to you? Do men read His truth and His love in your life, or has yours been too full of malice and strife. Does your life speak evil, or does it ring true? Say, what is the gospel, according to you?
