BROAD STREET CHURCH OF CHRIST

VOL. XXXVII NO. 41

From Where I Sit . . .

“Do You Really Trust The Lord?”

Our lives are filled with self-contradictions. We may profess to believe that a certain thing is true but then act in a totally opposite direction of disbelief when it comes to the application of that belief to our lives.

For example, we can be both confident that good can come but pessimistic that it will come for us. We can feel both encouraged that things will get better and yet discouraged about the state of our life facing the same situation. We can look at circumstances and express a real sense of hope, and moments later declare feelings of profound hopelessness about the same circumstances. According to some, a situation may provide real opportunity (for others at least, but probably not for me).

We’ve probably all observed someone who demonstrates such contradictions, but have you ever noticed yourself doing that? I fear that we do this with Jesus, and the power of God at work in our lives. We avow that “...all things work together for good to them that love God...” (Romans 8:28) and yet we are consumed with fear thoughts as to how we’re going to possibly survive the situation.

We avow that we believe that God is at work in us (Phil. 2:13) “...both to will and to do of his good pleasure,” and yet we sometimes act like, “Well, He does that for other people, but I have no talents that God or this church can use; nothing to contribute.”

Or consider one who says: “I believe that Jesus can forgive a person of their sins,” and then we shy away from God, the church, and sometimes from our fellow man as if we’ve committed an unforgivable sin. It’s almost as if we hold back a little parenthesis that says “Yes, But!” – “I believe God can save sinners, but I doubt if he can forgive me.”

Many believe hope is unrealistic. Ancient philosophers such as Aristotle did not think hope was a virtue, but rather a passion. Hope was something that hindered rational living by fostering unrealistic expectations. Perhaps at our low moments we all face hopelessness. Despair seems so much more realistic than hope.

General Douglas MacArthur was one of the most famous graduates of West Point, and a true American Hero, yet he crossed some wires that angered some politicians and his dreams came to a screeching halt. After MacArthur was fired as commander of the armed forces in Korea, he was given an opportunity to address the United States Congress. As he spoke, he said, “I am closing my 52 years of military service. When I joined the army, even before the turn of the century, it was the fulfillment of all my boyish hopes and dreams. The world has turned over many times since I took the oath on the plain at West Point, and the hopes and dreams have long since vanished.”

What a contradiction of faith! As God’s children, we should claim the words of Jesus for ourselves:

Mark 9:23-24 (KJV) ²³Jesus said unto him, If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth.
²⁴And straightway the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, Lord, I believe; help thou mine unbelief.

. . . . Terry Broome

Please pray for our sick and remember them with cards, calls and visits.

Peg Gough will be having medical tests done and would appreciate prayers for good results.

Steve Chandler, son in law of Tommy Bellomy, had a heart catherization last week. He will be undergoing additional tests to determine his continued pain in his chest. Prayers are appreciated.

Xavier Benevides, grandson of Terry and Greta Collins, has covid and complications from asthma. Please pray for him and that the virus doesn't spread throughout the household.

Betty D'Auria took a fall Sunday before church service. She is pretty bruised and skinned up but thankfully no broken bones. Prayers are appreciated.

Take It All to Jesus

*If you're always in a dither
With far too much to do,
If your life's a constant hassle
And just too much for you,
If you're plagued and vexed with worries
And life's more than you can bear,
Why not take it all to Jesus
Silently in prayer?
He'll comfort, rest and soothe you,
He'll help you to unwind,
And as an added bonus
He'll give you peace of Mind.*
