BROAD STREET CHURCH OF CHRIST

VOL. XXXVII NO. 46

From Where I Sit . . .

“On Reasons To Be Thankful”

The Thanksgiving table was set. The turkey was a golden brown. Dressing and gravy, cranberry sauce, creamed corn, and all the traditional trimmings were set before the unlikely guests for this Thanksgiving meal. They were all residents of a boarding house, and none of them was there with a family member. This year they would be observing Thanksgiving without their children or grandchildren. In fact it had been this way for most of them for several years now.

The small band of residents joined hands and before they prayed each described a special reason to be thankful. One thanked God for each friend who shared the boarding house with him. One thanked God for the special gift of Jesus Christ. Each one offered a reason to be thankful, including the elderly lady who expressed her gratitude for two perfectly good teeth, one in her upper jaw and the other in perfect alignment on the lower jaw. She was so grateful they matched so she could chew that delicious turkey.

It was while he was in prison that the Apostle Paul taught and wrote one of the most powerful texts in the Scriptures regarding the thankful spirit:

“Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice. Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand. Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things. Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you” (Philippians 4:4-9).

It's difficult to be thankful “in” everything because some of our “life situations” cloud out our memories of reasons to still be thankful. Certainly one is not being commanded to be thankful for everything that occurs in life, but rather to have a thankful spirit even in the worse of situations. There are still other things one can find to be thankful for.

These tenants in the boarding house no longer had family and no doubt longed for the days when they felt the warmth and comfort of family love. Their circumstance was at best lonely, yet they each took time to focus on a reason for rejoicing and thanksgiving.

I could learn from these folks, and I must learn from the Apostle Paul. Life doesn't always serve what we think we deserve. May we have the help of God and of one another this Thanksgiving season to adopt the attitude of gratitude. Take the time to tell others around you of things in your life you are grateful for. Most of all, take time to tell God in prayer. “Father, in Heaven, we have so much from your hands of which we are not deserving. You have been so good to us. Help us to share your goodness with one another.” May you all have a wonderful Thanksgiving season, and may we all learn to be more appreciative day by day.

Chad's Chatter

In our hearts and on our lips

Do you talk about the good that GOD does in your life to the people around you? I would guess the majority of people do not. Christians would all, hopefully, agree that they believe in the Bible, are willing to admit and give GOD credit for every good and perfect gift, but may have a hard time mentioning Him in conversation. Why is that? Do you remember the last time you mentioned GOD's control, awesome power, greatness, or His love? I'm not talking about saying the pledge of allegiance when everyone else is saying it. I'm talking about an individual conversation you have with someone and bringing up anything about GOD in your life. If we are not willing to bring Him up in a casual conversation, when are we willing to bring Him up? GOD should always be on our lips, in our thoughts, and in our actions. Sadly, for a large portion of people, the primary time they will mention His name, is only if they speak His name in vain. Let us be individuals that break the worldly mould and only speak His name when we actually are talking about Him and His glory! Let us thank Him and be bold to honor Him whenever we have opportunity!

1 Peter 3:15 "but in your hearts honor CHRIST the LORD as holy, always being prepared to make a defense to anyone who asks you for a reason for the hope that is in you; yet do it with gentleness and respect,"

Psalms 107:1 Oh give thanks to the LORD, for He is good, for His steadfast love endures forever!

~Chad

Teen event will begin at 9 AM at Charlotte Vinson's house. We will be raking her leaves and cleaning up her yard. Please bring a rake, if you have one. Then, we will come back to the church building, play some games together, have a Bible study, then go get some lunch in the church van. We should be done around 2 PM.

Please join us for an Essentials Baby Shower honoring Abigail Edmonds on Sunday, January 8th at 1 PM to 3 PM. Abigail is registered at Amazon.

Elders and Deacons Meeting on Sunday, November 20th at 4:30 PM. All deacons are encouraged to attend.

Because of Sin

*Our Lord arrived at the Garden with darkness, in full array, He poured out His heart to the Father,
as He fell on His face to pray.
He was carrying a heavy burden. And from it He must not run. With love He promised faithfully not My will, but Yours be done.
The cup of the cross was bitter, yet He drank
it to the end. Why did our Lord endure it?
He did it because of sin.*
