BROAD STREET CHURCH OF CHRIST

VOL. XXXVIII NO. 13

From Where I Sit . . .

“Be Not Afraid”

A little boy came to his father, looking much in earnest and asked: “Is Satan bigger than I am?” “Yes, my son, I’m afraid he is,” came the reply. “Is he bigger than you are, Daddy?” Again the reply was unsettling, “Yes, Satan is larger than your dad.” The little boy looked surprised, maybe even desperate but he thought further and asked one last question: “Is Satan bigger than Jesus?” “No, my boy, Satan is not bigger than Jesus.” As the little boy turned away, he said with a relieved smile, “Then I’m not afraid of him.”

We can appreciate the desperation of the little boy when we remember that most little boys think that no one is bigger or stronger than their own fathers. We can also understand the strong reason for asking such a question in the first place. The Bible tells us to: “Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour:” (1 Pet 5:8). With a description of Satan like that, one would naturally worry a bit about just how powerful he really is.

I remember the picture on the Red-Devil Lye container that used to be sold in grocery stores of the devil with horns, a long many-pronged pitch fork, and painted all red. For years that was my image of what Satan looked like. He was mean and he was bad. My mind’s picture of him has changed a bit through the years. Paul suggests a different image: “And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works” (2 Cor. 11:14-15). Satan can look any way he wants to in his quest to conquer our souls. Actually that makes him far more dangerous. He could be the man in the pulpit, or the neighbor next door, or at least he could use them as agents of destruction.

It causes me to want to draw very close to God for security against such a force that has led millions upon millions of careless souls astray: “Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded. Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness. Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up” (James 4: 7-10).

Jesus assured us that He is indeed stronger: “Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world” (1 John 4:4).

“Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil” (Heb 2:14).

“And the God of peace shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen” (Rom 16:20). We don’t have to be afraid, but we do have to draw close to our Lord for safety.

FYI to the Congregation –

Work Projects For the next several weeks there will be work going on throughout the church building. We ask that no one access the building from Monday, April 3rd until Wednesday evening services on April 5th. New flooring will be getting installed in the entrance ways and the restrooms on the main floor. The MPR and classrooms will not be accessible until the week of April 10th. Any activities which normally go on in the MPR will need to be scheduled at our Woods Cove building. Please schedule the use of the Woods Cove building with Wendy at the office. Thank you for your cooperation.

Broad Street will be hosting Ladies Day on Saturday, May 6th at 9 AM to 2 PM, breakfast and registration will begin at 8 AM. Please join us in fellowship, singing, and crafts. Registration for Ladies Day is on the Church Connect App (QR code will take you directly to registration) and on the bulletin board. Please register or sign up by April 9th to receive a t-shirt. Please see Wendy or Ashley if you need help registering. Pam and Beverly will have a special class and craft for young ladies 5th grade and under. If you have registered using the Church Connect App, please verify that you have received a confirmation email. Several ladies have missed the last step while registering. You may also call the church office or ask Wendy to verify for you.

Chad's Chatter

How do you stir one another up?

Have you ever made a cake from scratch? Maybe you have a recipe book to follow all the steps. You see all the instructions as to all the things you need to add and in what order. However, there is another step that is crucial, the stirring! What happens if you follow everything perfectly to make a cake, but forget to stir all the ingredients together? Can you imagine what it would be like if the sugar, eggs, flour, baking powder, vanilla extract, and a pinch of salt were not stirred together? What a mess of a cake! Stirring is such a simple task, but so necessary at the same time.

 Apr 6-9 – Lads to Leaders Convention

Duck Run @ Cook's Farm

Please join us at Ralph and Tammy Cook's farm on Saturday, April 22nd @ 11am for a duck run. Bring a picnic lunch, snacks, and a chair if you wish to sit by the creek. The duck run will start at 1 pm. Please see Ralph Cook if you have any questions. 2786 County Road 145, Scottsboro, AL 35768.

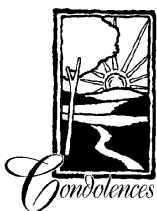

There is a number of umbrellas that have been left in the handicap air lock over the last year. We will be having new floor installed next week in the air locks and we need the umbrellas to be removed. Thank you for your cooperation.

Hebrews 10:24-25

And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near.

Similar to a cake, we, as Christian brothers and sisters can stir one another up in love and good works! Imagine if we never talked to each other to encourage and remind each other that we're there and care together! We'd have all the parts we needed, but we'd be separate and not acting like one cohesive body. Doesn't sound very tasty, does it?

~Chad

Broad Street expresses our condolences to Jo Reed and Tracy Brumley for the passing of Jo Reed's brother, Terry Brumley. Terry passed away on Tuesday, March 28th. The funeral will be on Saturday, April 1st at the Calendonia church of Christ in Calendonia, MS.

Right Thinking

*Think not of past years,
When you fell on your chin,
Think not of yesterday,
And what could have been.
Think of today,
And what lies within,
Think of tomorrow,
And the victories to win.*
