BROAD STREET CHURCH OF CHRIST

VOL. XXXVIII NO. 18

From Where I Sit . . .

As I sit here today contemplating this new work at the Broad Street Church Of Christ, I feel very humble. I think about all the people over the years of this wonderful congregation's existence that have done so much and have sacrificed so much to bring this congregation to this time in its history. I am eternally grateful for every one of them for without them I would not be a Christian today. This is so very humbling for me to be a part of this work.

I also feel a great deal sense of indebtedness. I feel indebted to God who has allowed me to grow from a babe in Christ to one who is now able to help others grow in their faith. I feel indebted to this present eldership and to every eldership that has come before them. These dedicated men that have worked so hard and have given so much to help this congregation stay true to God's Holy Word. I also feel indebted to all the ministers that have come before me who have put their heart and soul into preaching God's Word. They have striven with great effort to preach the complete word of God. I pray that I will do the same thing. I am very grateful to Brother Broome who has worked so tirelessly for this congregation and for the Lord's Kingdom all these years of service over the span of his career as a preacher of God's Word. I am so looking forward to work with him.

I also feel a great sense of indebtedness to every member of this wonderful congregation. I seek to help Christians grow in their faith. I also seek to preach the good news of salvation to those who are not Christians. Jesus prayed before He ascended to the Father in John 17: 20 – 23, “[20] “I do not pray for these alone, but also for those who will believe in Me through their word; [21] “that they all may be one, as You, Father, are in Me, and I in You; that they also may be one in Us, that the world may believe that You sent Me. [22] “And the glory which You gave Me I have given them, that they may be one just as We are one: [23] “I in them, and You in Me; that they may be made perfect in one, and that the world may know that You have sent Me, and have loved them as You have loved Me.” There is no greater work that we can be involved with than to help one another come to this oneness that Jesus so desperately wanted. To do this, we must use the word of God to help each one of us grow and we must use the word of God to help one another grow. It is only through this word that we can ever reach this oneness.

I cannot express to you how excited I am to be working with you and for you. I hope that you are excited to be working with me. If there is anything I can ever do to help you in any way, please do not hesitate to call on me. I became a minister to help others as others have helped me.

To Our Wonderful Broad Street Church of Christ Family,

Kathy and I want to express our heartfelt appreciation for the many wonderful years we've shared together. The Pot-Luck Lunch this past Sunday was a beautiful testimony of your love. We've never seen the Multi-Purpose Room so filled with well-wishers, nor as much food brought together as was on Sunday. Thank you to all who decorated, cooked, served, attended, and to those who helped with the clean-up, and to those who wrote such meaningful words on cards for us. I thank the Elders for the wonderful plaque celebrating our twenty-one years together, and for your support of our efforts. We desire your prayers as we chart a new course of service to our Heavenly Father.

Terry and Kathy Broome

There will be a baby shower honoring Baby Everleigh Ruth, daughter of Tres Sanford and Madison Pendergrass on Sunday, May 7th at 2:00 PM to 3:30 PM, in the MPR. Gift cards would be appreciated.

Garry Hale, brother of Judy McCrary, has completed his radiation treatments with success. His doctor reported numbers better than expected and he is now cancer free. God is good. Thank you to everyone who prayed on his behalf.

Judy McCrary

Congratulations to Joey and Megan Manning for the birth of their daughter, Emory Brooks, on Monday, May 1st. Emory weighed 9 lb. 9 oz and 22 inches long. Joe and Lee Ann Manning are the proud grandparents and Margaret Barnes is the proud great grandmother.

THANK YOU FOR GIVING!

I want to send a message of thanks and appreciation to all those who have given something for someone else. Thank you for holding the door for someone who might have their hands full. Thank you for letting someone go before you at a restaurant or car line. Thank you for noticing someone and being the first to say "hi, good to see you!" Thank you for your time spent writing cards, cooking meals, talking to people who are lonely and visiting others. Thank you for all the calls made, prayers given, and encouraging words spoken. Thank you for all the food given to the pantry or to individuals. Thank you for all the clothes donated and hospitality through the years.

Sometimes, when we think about giving from what we have, we think of giving from our money; and while that's definitely what we need to do, there's more to giving than just money. There is time, love, money, food, clothing, shelter, compassion, and a number of other services we can give. When JESUS said 'Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me.' He wasn't just talking about money. In fact, if you read Matthew 25:31-46, you will see that He is talking about giving of food, drink, welcoming, clothing, and visiting, even in prison. Yes, some of that involves money initially, and we give on the first day of the week from our money, but there are many other things we are asked to give.

So, again, I say thank you for all your help in serving CHRIST by serving others! If you don't feel like you have been doing these things, there is no better time to start than now!

~Chad
