BROAD STREET CHURCH OF CHRIST

VOL. XXXVIII NO. 30

From Where I Sit . . .

“DO WE TRULY SEE THE VALUE?”

So many times we cannot see the true value of things. How many times have we passed by something thinking it must not be worth much only to find out it had great value? I think of this every time I see a baseball card and wonder if any of those cards I had that were placed on the spokes of my bicycle wheels had any real value. I heard a story that illustrates this point.

A wealthy man and his son loved to collect rare works of art. They had everything in their collection from Picasso to Raphael. When the Vietnam conflict broke out, the son was drafted to go to war. He was very courageous and died in battle while rescuing another soldier. The father was notified and he grieved deeply for the loss of his son.

About a month later, a young man knocked on the door bearing a large package in his hands. He said, “Sir, you don’t know me, but I am the soldier for whom your son gave his life to save. He saved many lives that day and he was carrying me to safety when a bullet struck him and he instantly died. He spoke often of you and our love of fine art.” The young man held out the package and said, “I know it is not much, but I think your son would have wanted you to have this.” The package was a portrait of the old man’s son that had been painted by this soldier. The father looked at the portrait, particularly at the eyes, and he could not believe how this young man had captured the spirit of his son in that painting. He thanked the young man and offered to pay him for the portrait. “Oh, no sir. I could never repay what your son did for me. It is a gift!!”, said the young soldier.

The old man died and the will called for an auction to be held to auction off the art he and his son had collected for so many years. All those valuable paintings would be auctioned to the highest bidders. Everyone came in hopes of obtaining a painting from this priceless collection. The auctioneer began with the portrait of the old man’s son. The auctioneer began, “Who will bid on this portrait?” No one bid. They pleaded with the auctioneer to skip this item and move on to the more valuable paintings. The auctioneer again pleaded, “Who will bid on this portrait?” Finally from the back of the room, the old man’s gardner said, “I’ll bid $10.00.” You see he did not have very much and this was all that he had. The auctioneer pleaded for another bid, but nothing came. So the auctioneer said, “Going once, going twice, sold for $10.00.” Finally the crowd thought, now we can get on with the auction of the more valuable paintings. The auctioneer said, “This concludes the auction, for the one who purchased the portrait of the old man’s son was to receive the rest of the art collection.”

The message is the same from God today. Whoever takes the Son gets everything, John 3: 16, “[16] “For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life.” But you can only get the Son by valuing the portrait of His Son found in the Holy Word Of God, Romans 10: 17, “So then faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.” To get the Son, we must come to truly value the word of God.

Dear Broad Street Family,

Thank you so much for the beautiful cards, calls, and the beautiful hydrangea plant that was sent for the heartbreaking loss we experienced during the tragic child birth experience of our daughter Bree. Please continue your prayers for Bree and Justin during their grieving process. Thank you again for everything.

In Christian Love,

Melba & Steve Crawford and Hadley

Hello to my Broad Street Church Family,

I want to thank everyone involved in welcoming baby Everleigh Ruth Sanford, and I also want to thank everyone who participated in giving Everleigh her first "Tea Party."

I am so thankful for my church family. You have all made Everleigh, Madison Pendergrass, and her family feel welcome.

Thank you all for all of the gifts, and all of the gift cards. Everything that you have given to Everleigh Ruth has helped tremendously with meeting a lot of her needs.

Thank you again! I love you all from the bottom of my heart.

In Christian Love,

Tres Sanford

10 Ways to Find Time to Read the Bible

1. Wake up ten minutes earlier each morning to read the bible.
2. Put a Bible portion under your pillow to read each night before sleep.
3. Talk less and you will have a few more minutes to read.
4. Keep a copy on hand in the kitchen or at the telephone to read while you "hold."
5. Carry a copy of the Bible in your purse or pocket to read while waiting for doctors, unpunctual people, etc.
6. Never go on a trip without your Bible.
7. Keep a copy in the glove compartment of the car.
8. Remember, a Bible in your hand is worth two on the table.
9. Turn the TV off and read to your children.
10. Read a verse or two at mealtime when all the family is together.
