VOL. XXXVIII NO. 42

From Where I Sit . . .

"ACCESS TO THE MIND OF CHRIST"

Paul makes an interesting statement in I Corinthians 2: 16, "[16] For 'who has known the mind of the LORD that he may instruct Him?' But we have the mind of Christ." When I first read this passage, it didn't seem possible to me that Paul could have access to the mind of Christ. I am sure that many who heard Paul utter these words had some of the same thoughts that I did. If we say Jesus is God in the flesh, then it seems unlikely that we could have access to the mind of God. But that is exactly what Paul is saying.

It is almost unthinkable that we have access to the mind of the One who created this whole universe. We are not limited to our own human reasoning. We are not limited by our finite human minds so that we cannot comprehend the eternal absolute truths. We have access to these absolute truths that are found in the mind of Christ through the words of the Holy Spirit, John 16: 5 - 15, "[5] 'But now I go away to Him who sent Me, and none of you asks Me, 'Where are You going?' [6] 'But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your heart. [7] 'Nevertheless I tell you the truth. It is to your advantage that I go away; for if I do not go away, the Helper will not come to you; but if I depart, I will send Him to you. [8] 'And when He has come, He will convict the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment: [9] 'of sin, because they do not believe in Me; [10] 'of righteousness, because I go to My Father and you see Me no more; [11] 'of judgment, because the ruler of this world is judged. [12] 'I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. [13] 'However, when He, the Spirit of truth, has come, He will guide you into all truth; for He will not speak on His own authority, but whatever He hears He will speak; and He will tell you things to come. [14] 'He will glorify Me, for He will take of what is Mine and declare it to you. [15] 'All things that the Father has are Mine. Therefore I said that He will take of Mine and declare it to you.'" We have been instructed in all truth through this word brought to us by the Holy Spirit. We can know the direction of human history. We can know how to escape the corruption we see in this world. We can know the ultimate source of all power and of all truth. We have access to all of this if we will only accept the mind of Christ.

Herein lies the problem, we often settle for the lesser means of wisdom that comes from the limited mind of man. We are either unaware that we have access to the mind of Christ or we simply do not believe we can have access to the mind of Christ. The Bible teaches us that we truly do have access to the mind of Christ, I Corinthians 2: 10 - 12, "[10] But God has revealed them to us through His Spirit. For the Spirit searches all things, yes, the deep things of God. [11] For what man knows the things of a man except the spirit of the man which is in him? Even so no one knows the things of God except the Spirit of God. [12] Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, that we might know the things that have been freely given to us by God." We must be willing to trade the limited wisdom of man for the true infinite wisdom of Christ found in His Word. This is why we should heed the instructions given to us in II Timothy 2: 15 - 16, "[15] Be diligent to present yourself approved to God, a worker who does not need to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. [16] But shun profane and idle babblings, for they will increase to more ungodliness."
