BROAD STREET CHURCH OF CHRIST

VOL. XXXIV NO. 6

From Where I Sit . . .

“JOURNEY OF FAITH”

Richard E. Byrd spent the winter of 1934 at the Bolling Advance Weather Base in Antarctica. Here the temperatures range from -58 degrees F to -78 degrees F. By the time he was rescued, he was suffering from frostbite and carbon monoxide poisoning. He wrote about this period of his life in a book entitled, Alone. He wrote, “I had hardly enough strength to move. I clung to the sleeping bag, which was my only source of comfort and warmth left to me and mournfully debated the little that might be done. Two facts stood clear: one was that my chances of recovering were slim and the other was that in my state of weakness I was incapable of taking care of myself. But you must have faith - you must have faith in the outcome, I whispered to myself. It is like a flight into another unknown. You start and you cannot turn back. You must go on... trusting your instruments and the course plotted out before you.

The Christian life is a journey much like the description Mr. Byrd gave of his experience in the winter of 1934. Once we begin our journey of faith, we cannot turn back, Luke 9: 62, “[62] But Jesus said to him, “No one, having put his hand to the plow, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.” We must move forward trusting the course that our example Jesus the Christ has mapped out for us, Philippians 3: 13 - 14, “[13] Brethren, I do not count myself to have apprehended; but one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead, [14] I press toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus.” The Word of God becomes the instrument that guides us on this journey and we simply must put all our trust in this instrument, Psalms 119: 105 - 107, “[105] Your word is a lamp to my feet And a light to my path. [106] I have sworn and confirmed That I will keep Your righteous judgments. [107] I am afflicted very much; Revive me, O LORD, according to Your word.” It is our faith that keeps us on this pathway no matter what the difficulties we may face. Even when these difficulties make us come to the realization we cannot make it on our own. Faith gives us the assurance that we have help when we cannot overcome the difficulties ourselves, Matthew 11: 28 - 30, “[28] “Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. [29] “Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30] “For My yoke is easy and My burden is light.” It is our living faith that keeps us seeking God’s righteousness so we can escape the hardships and the corruption we face in this life, II Peter 1: 2 - 4, “[2] Grace and peace be multiplied to you in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord, [3] as His divine power has given to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of Him who called us by glory and virtue, [4] by which have been given to us exceedingly great and precious promises, that through these you may be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.” Where would we be without this living faith in Jesus Christ?

Dear Broad Street Family,

There truly are no words to adequately share what is in our hearts. The love and care you shared with Mother and our family not just this past month but for many years taught us what the love of Jesus looks like, through every act of kindness (whether it was a visit, a card, a meal, a prayer, flowers, a hug), you not only honored Mother but you also honored our Lord. Thank you for the blessings you showered on Mother and each of us.

With Appreciation and Love,

The Family of Irene Gist
