“ESCAPE THE CHAOS”

There is an interesting movie that came out in the last few years called, “The Purge”. I am sure that like most movies released today that it might not be appropriate for Christians to view. However, the preview of this movie presents an interesting concept. The movie is based upon the premise that one day a year the government allows no law to exist. In other words, men can choose to do absolutely anything they want to do without any fear of repercussion or punishments. You do not like your neighbor, then during this twenty-four hour period you can kill him without fear of punishment. You truly like your neighbor’s car, then during this period you can steal it without fear of jail time. The only problem with this is everyone else has the right and the ability to do the same thing. Can you imagine the fear and the chaos that would result in a twenty-four hour period of everyone having the ability to do such as this? Can you imagine the fear and the suffering that would occur in just one twenty-four hour period of this chaos? Can you imagine what life would be like if God had not appointed governments to produce laws to control situations like this? Life would be filled with constant fear and suffering. It would be so chaotic that normal activities could not be carried out. No one would like to live among such fear and chaos. However, we sometimes feel we are swiftly approaching a society like this. It seems we are being surrounded by a society that embraces individual choice so much that it is creating this sense of fear and chaos.

How are we as Christians to deal with such a fearful, chaotic world? Peter gives us some help with this in II Peter 1: 2 - 11, “[2] Grace and peace be multiplied to you in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord, [3] as His divine power has given to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of Him who called us by glory and virtue, [4] by which have been given to us exceedingly great and precious promises, that through these you may be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust. [5] But also for this very reason, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue, to virtue knowledge, [6] to knowledge self-control, to self-control perseverance, to perseverance godliness, [7] to godliness brotherly kindness, and to brotherly kindness love. [8] For if these things are yours and abound, you will be neither barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. [9] For he who lacks these things is shortsighted, even to blindness, and has forgotten that he was cleansed from his old sins. [10] Therefore, brethren, be even more diligent to make your call and election sure, for if you do these things you will never stumble; [11] for so an entrance will be supplied to you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.” If we want to have a hope of escaping this corruption, we must put our faith in a standard that will allow us to escape this corruption. We embrace a law and a moral standard that is above the law and moral standards that man would set for himself. This law and moral standard will lift us to a place of true peace, a peace this chaotic world will never know. If we simply believe and do these things, we can escape the corruption, the fear, and the chaos that comes from lawlessness. What if the whole world would embrace this law and moral standard? The world would then have the peace that God wanted for His creation. May we embrace this law and moral standard.

Encouragement for Fathers

Being a Dad is one of the greatest honors in life, but it's also one of the most difficult jobs out there. Culture's skewed expectations and diminishing view of fatherhood haven't made our work as dads any easier. We know the importance of providing, protecting and leading; but, how do we do that faithfully in today's world?

Thankfully God's word exists to encourage and lead us in the work of fathering. One place we find great encouragement is the Psalms.

"Unless the Lord builds the house, those who build it labor in vain. Unless the Lord watches over the city, the watchman stays awake in vain. It is in vain that you rise up early and go late to rest, eating the bread of anxious toil; for he gives to his beloved sleep. Behold, children are a heritage from the Lord, the fruit of the womb a reward. Like arrows in the hand of a warrior are the children of one's youth. Blessed is the man who fills his quiver with them! He shall not be put to shame when he speaks with his enemies in the gate" (Psalm 127).

Here are four lessons that we can quickly take away from these words of wisdom.

Let the Lord BUILD your home (v. 1). This isn't talking about nail guns and power tools (although those are cool!). He is raising the question, "Is God at the center of everything holding all things together?" If not, let him build beyond a dwelling and establish your home.

Accept the Lord's protection (v. 1). As a father, we take security seriously. While we can check the locks at night and make sure our kids wear their seatbelt, here we are challenged to trust in the providence of almighty God and let Him protect us eternally.

Let the Lord guide your work (v. 2). The role of provider is not something most dads take lightly. However, we can easily become entangled in the grind and exhausted from the tempo. Remember, reliance upon God in all things leads to peace.

Enjoy the reward of children (v. 3-5). Sometimes screaming babies, inquisitive toddlers, needy young ones, and temperamental teenagers can cloud our eyes to the blessings of our children. Don't forget to stop and enjoy the joy that they are now and will continue to be in the future. Thanks for being a dad who puts God first!

Reconciliation: Turning the World Upside Down

Acts 14:1-6

Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a synagogue of the Jews.<sup>2</sup> Then Paul, as his custom was, went in to them, and for three Sabbaths reasoned with them from the Scriptures, <sup>3</sup> explaining and demonstrating that the Christ had to suffer and rise again from the dead, and saying, "This Jesus whom I preach to you is the Christ."<sup>4</sup> And some of them were persuaded; and a great multitude of the devout Greeks, and not a few of the leading women, joined Paul and Silas.

<sup>5</sup> But the Jews who were not persuaded, becoming envious, took some of the evil men from the marketplace, and gathering a mob, set all the city in an uproar and attacked the house of Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people.<sup>6</sup> But when they did not find them, they dragged Jason and some brethren to the rulers of the city, crying out, "These who have turned the world upside down have come here too."
