“SURRENDER YOUR MIND TO GOD”

Warren Wiersbe writes, “Surrender your mind to the Lord at the beginning of each day.” Each day the Lord has blessed us with 1,440 minutes in which we choose what we will do with each one of these precious minutes that we can never get back. Can you think of a better way to spend this precious time than spending a few minutes with the One who created us? There are two important ways we can spend time with the God who loves us at the beginning of each new day. First, we can take the time to listen to God as He speaks to us through His most Holy Word. Spending time listening to God through His Word allows us to fill our minds with things that help elevate our thinking for the day. Notice Isaiah 55: 6 - 9, “[6] Seek the LORD while He may be found, Call upon Him while He is near. [7] Let the wicked forsake his way, And the unrighteous man his thoughts; Let him return to the LORD, And He will have mercy on him; And to our God, For He will abundantly pardon. [8] “For My thoughts are not your thoughts, Nor are your ways My ways,” says the LORD. 9] “For as the heavens are higher than the earth, So are My ways higher than your ways, And My thoughts than your thoughts.” When we read the Word of God we are filling our minds with noble thoughts. Notice Philippians 4: 8 - 9, “[8] Finally, brethren, whatever things are true, whatever things are noble, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report, if there is any virtue and if there is anything praiseworthy—meditate on these things. [9] The things which you learned and received and heard and saw in me, these do, and the God of peace will be with you.” It is important to fill our minds with these thoughts and to meditate upon them for the writer of Proverbs wrote in Proverbs 23: 7, “[7] For as he thinks in his heart, so is he.” Another important reason for reading the Word of God is that it has the power to bring us peace in a very tumultuous world.

Another way we can spend time with our Creator is to talk with Him in prayer. Paul instructs us that prayer not only can bring us peace to start each new day, but it solicits the help of God to guard our hearts and our minds as we begin each new day. Notice Philippians 4: 6 - 7, “[6] Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God; [7] and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.” When we begin each day with time spent with God we are doing all we can do to insure that we have a peaceful, secure mind at the beginning of each new day. We all need this for each new day is going to be filled with its own trouble and challenges. So let us remember to surrender our minds to the Lord at the beginning of each new day!

Please pray for our sick and remember them with cards, calls and visits.

Alex Baird will return to St. Jude in Memphis from July 23rd to July 26th. He has been having more pain in his leg and foot lately, so he will be having multiple MRIs and tests and will meet with his Oncology Orthopedic also. Please pray that the tumors in his foot have not grown and there is no regrowth in his surgery leg.

Zac Holt, son of Buddy and Jenny Holt, is experiencing some heart related health challenges. Prayers for effective treatment and healing are very much appreciated. 902 Tipperary Dr, Scottsboro, 35768.

Ismael Felix, a student on the cross country team with Patton and Kaden, is in the hospital with a brain bleed. He had a procedure on Wednesday, July 17th to repair the vein that burst. Please keep him and his family and friends in your prayers.

Haley Farmer, daughter of Nancy Miles, had a heart catherization on Thursday, July 11th that showed she had a 90% blockage in the LAD. She had a stint put in on Thursday, July 11th. Please keep her in your prayers. 3269 County Rd 17., Scottsboro, 35768.

Marie Sullivan went to the doctor on Monday, July 8th and a piece of bone had broken off, so they put her in a hard cast and will recheck it in two weeks. Please pray that the bone will heal on its own and that no surgery will be needed.

Janie Barbee, aunt of Roger Myers, is at Highlands Rehab, Room 208, recovering from surgery and would appreciate prayers and cards.

The Last Verse

In 1814 Francis Scott Key had been negotiating the release of an American from the British Fleet. Key was successful and was only allowed to return to his ship, yet not allowed to leave the fleet because he had become familiar with the strength and position of the British units and their intention to launch an attack upon Baltimore. That night he was unable to do anything but watch the bombardment of Fort McHenry. He would write a poem about his experiences that night. These lyrics were printed in local newspapers and set to the tune of an existing song called Anacreon in Heaven. From that would come our national anthem.

Because of this, we are very familiar with the first stanza of the song but it actually has three verses. Let me share with you the last verse:

"O thus be it ever when freemen shall stand
 Between their lov'd home and the war's desolation!
 Blest with vict'ry and peace may the heav'n rescued land
 Praise the power that hath made and preserv'd us a nation!
 Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
 And this be our motto—"In God is our trust,"
 And the star-spangled banner in triumph shall wave
 O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave."

For Francis Scott Key the victory wasn't about the nation, but the God that saw them through.

"Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD, The people whom He has chosen for His own inheritance."

"What Happened On The Cross"
Matthew 27:45-50

45 Now from the sixth hour until the ninth hour there was darkness over all the land. 46 And about the ninth hour Jesus cried out with a loud voice, saying, "Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?" that is, "My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?"

47 Some of those who stood there, when they heard that, said, "This Man is calling for Elijah!" 48 Immediately one of them ran and took a sponge, filled it with sour wine and put it on a reed, and offered it to Him to drink.

49 The rest said, "Let Him alone; let us see if Elijah will come to save Him."

50 And Jesus cried out again with a loud voice, and yielded up His spirit.
