BROAD STREET CHURCH OF CHRIST

VOL. XXXV NO. 12

From Where I Sit . . .

Special Information During COVID-19 Separation:

– The Elders have announced that we will not be holding services together at the church building until after Sunday, April 5. The situation will be reevaluated after that date.

– In the mean time, we will be presenting a worship opportunity for the Broad Street Congregation and our friends on Sunday morning, March 29, via video on the internet. We will have the usual AM worship in songs, prayer, the Lord's Supper, and a message from God's Word. Members and friends around the world can reach our service at 10 AM by going to our website at www.broadstreetchurchofchrist.com and clicking on the YouTube channel link for a direct link. If you get the bulletin online, you can click on the following for a direct link to YouTube Broad Street Church of Christ - Scottsboro, AL . The service will begin promptly at 10:00, and will remain accessible after the initial premiere.

– During this difficult time, we are still, very much, a family. If you have special needs that we can help you with, please feel free to call either the church office, or Terry, Chad, or any of the Elders.

– If you do not have communion emblems for this Lord's Day, either come by the office during work hours, or call and we will deliver them to you. We passed out a 2-week supply last Friday, but you can use the same procedure to get emblems for the April 5 service.

– Our work for the Lord goes on, even during this shut down time. Our Missionaries, orphans, and other works still need supporting, and the expenses of conducting our work at home continue right on. Our weekly offering is both an expression of our love for God, and a means of supporting all of these efforts. Please make efforts to provide your offering either by bringing it to the church office, or mailing it in to Broad Street Church of Christ, 613 S. Broad St., Scottsboro, AL 35768.

If you do your banking online, you can also use that means of notifying your bank that you want your specified amount to be withdrawn from your account and mailed to the Broad Street Church. This method will delay the offering by approximately one week.

Meanwhile, pray for one another, for our nation, and for the suffering throughout the world during this pandemic viral outbreak.

. . . Terry Broome

Please pray for our sick and remember them with cards, calls and visits.—

Tammy McGuire was in the hospital for several days with her arm and came home on Tuesday. She continues to have some problems and will see her doctors on Friday. Please pray for Tammy.

God's Grace Is Amazing

Amazing grace, how sweet the sound,
that saved a wretch like me.
I once was lost, but now I'm found:
was blind, but now I see.

It is truly regrettable and tragic that something so wonderful as the grace of our loving God should be so grossly misunderstood by the religious world. Let us briefly note some facts concerning Jehovah's marvelous grace.

First, the grace of God is universally available to the human family through His Son. "For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men." (Titus 2:11) Indeed, our creator is "not willing that any should perish." (II Peter 3:9) And that is why He bade us to preach the gospel to every creature throughout all nations (Matthew 28:19; Mark 16:15).

Secondly, the Bible clearly teaches that the Lord's grace is conditional. In the Old Testament it is revealed that Noah's salvation from the destruction of the flood was due to the fact that he "found grace in the eyes of Jehovah." (Genesis 6:22) Obedience to our Maker does not in any sense mean that we merited salvation. But it does mean that we are willing recipients of His favor.

But thirdly, if it is to avail, the grace of God must be continued in. On the first missionary journey, in Antioch of Pisidia, Paul and Barnabas urged those who had been responsive to their preaching to "continue in the grace of God." (Acts 13:43) It is possible to "receive the grace of God" in vain (II Cor. 6:1); to fall away therefrom (Galatians 5:4), and thus to be severed from Christ and lost. May it not be so in our case.

The Restoration Observation

If I want to grow watermelons in Tennessee today, I do not have to have an unbroken watermelon vine stretching down through all the millennia from the Garden of Eden to Tennessee. All I have to do is plant watermelon seeds in Tennessee today. They will produce in Tennessee today what they have always produced — watermelons!

Similarly, to have the undenominational church of the New Testament in the 21st century, we do not need an unbroken line of faithful congregations stretching down through the centuries from the Day of Pentecost to the present. All we have to do is plant the seed (the word of God, Luke 8:11). It will produce in the 21st century what it produced in the first century — undenominational congregations (churches) of the Lord!

What Then?

A youth and an old man talked one day.
Said the boy, "I think I'll go away
From Father's old farm...don't know just when."
The old man listened and asked, "What then?"

"I guess I'll have some fun in town
The first few years...then settle down
And get a job and earn a lot"
The old man smiled and asked, "Then what?"

"Why then I'll meet the girl of my dreams,
Whose folks have money; and then it seems I'll buy a fine home with everything new."
The old man queried, "Then what will you do?"

"I guess I'll invest in bonds and stocks;
That's where they say opportunity knocks.
Maybe by that time I'll be governor."
And the old man asked, "And then, what more?"

"Then I guess I'll retire if I please,
And travel and live a life of ease."
The old man thought as he scratched his head;
"then what will you do my son?" he said.

For a moment the lad made no reply.
Then he answered slowly, "I guess I'll die."
A deep silence followed as both of them thought
Then the old man asked softly, "My boy, then what?"

The world looks brighter from

Good Advice

In the blink of an eye, everything can change. So forgive often, and love with all your heart. You may never know when you may not have that chance again.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

Someone has said that the law of spiritual life is expressed in four words:

1. Admit — accept the truth of God.
2. Submit — obey it.
3. Commit — live in entire dependance on Him.
4. Transmit — let the life flow out in blessing to others.
